

BUBBLES WITH A DETERGENT SWING . . . A new group of bubbles popped the cork on the Lawrence Welk show last weekend when the "Panettes", a group of local mothers gave a performance at the Aragon ballroom. This group, representing the Eagles Auxiliary Redondo 935, is managed by Mrs. Frank Hooker. Their instruments are unimaginable household items. The talented group appeared July 9 at the Redondo

Picnics and Food Sale Planned by Fireladies

Ladies Auxiliary of the Torrance Fire Department met for a regular monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Delsigne, 1765 Calamar St., Monday evening. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Ronald Power, president.

Mrs. George Blahnik was elected to fill a vacancy in the office of first vice president. Mrs. Blahnik has been serving on the ways and means committee.

and dessert were enjoyed by Mmes.: Ronald Power, Robert Moffitt, Charles Reintsma, Teddy Drake, Paul Smith, George Blahnik, Jack Delsigne, Walter West and William Millard.

Due to Labor Day holidays, the Fireladies September meeting will be held on the second Monday of the month, Sept. 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Power, 3544 Garnet St.

It was announced that the Fireladies would hold a Bake sale Saturday, Aug. 13, at 9:30 a.m. in front of the A&P Market on El Prado. The proceeds from the bake sale will be used to purchase material to make slippers for the children at Harbor General Hospital.

The social for the month of August will be a Family Picnic for both the A and B shifts on Wednesday, Aug. 17 and Thursday, Aug. 18, 6 p.m. at El Retiro Park.

Upon adjournment, coffee

Rebekah News

On Sunday, Aug. 14, the Torrance Oddfellow and Rebekah lodges will stage a dime-a-dip dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jennings, 2317 W. 247th St. in Lomita beginning at 5 p.m.

Each member is asked to bring a covered dish. The public is invited to attend.

The affair was planned at the regular meeting of the Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 held at the Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave. last Wednesday with Freda Shaffer, presiding.

The group also decided to attend the meeting of the Trio Rebekah lodge in Lomita Wednesday evening when Nellie M. Meters, president of the Rebekah Assembly of California, made her social visit.

The Oddfellows and Rebekahs of Los Angeles County held their annual picnic at Recreation Park in Long Beach last Sunday. A large number from Torrance attended.

Olive Veatch has been appointed to assist District Deputy Cecile Horton at the District meeting to be held in Inglewood Sept. 27.

Localites Dine

Many localites were noted the past few evenings dining with friends or entertaining guests at The Polynesian Restaurant.

Among those from Torrance were Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Meadows, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Rich, Mardi and Richard B. Opalinski, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. May and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur D. Johnson.

D & D Club To Hear Talk

Earl Hightower, attorney, will speak on "The FBI's Role In The Petroleum Industry" and "Our Problem - Communism," when the Harbor Area Desk and Derrick Club holds its regular monthly dinner meeting, Aug. 17, at the Lakewood Country Club.

In addition to telling of the important role the FBI plays in protecting the petroleum industry, Mr. Hightower will also cover the importance of oil to our Federal economy and give a brief background on the FBI as well as the FBI's contribution of personnel to business and industry.

Mr. Hightower is well qualified to speak on this subject, as he spent three years with the FBI and fifteen years in the practice of law as an oil and gas attorney.

Because this promises to be not only an interesting meeting but an educational one as well, President Marian Ramsauer has declared this an open meeting which means guests (male and female) from outside the industry may attend.

Society To Meet Friday

Metropolitan Cactus and Succulent Society will hold its regular meeting Friday evening, Aug. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the gardens at the C. O. Eipper home, 25338 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita.

There will be a culture contest and the awarding of three prizes.

John Docca, of the Bakermaster Bake shop in the South Bay Shopping Center will demonstrate the art of cake decorating. There will be a plant table and refreshments will be served.

The public is invited to attend this meeting.

Jackson Moore Family Here

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Moore, 814 Beech Ave., had as their guests last week their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Symon of Piedmont.

Miss Jill Jackson returned to Piedmont with the Symons. All three were graduated last June from the University of California at Santa Barbara. Jill received a scholarship from Macy's in San Francisco where she will be studying buying and merchandising for the next nine months.

Mr. and Mrs. Symon both will enter the University of San Francisco where Mr. Symon will study business administration. Mrs. Symon, the former Sally Moore, will study music and literature.

Visits Parents
Mrs. Lilbourne Rice, 2047 Kathy Way, has returned to Torrance after spending a month in Pittsfield, Ill., where she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith. Mrs. Rice made the trip by jet.

Cafe Diners
A tropical theme prevailed at many dinner parties given by localites recently at The Polynesian Restaurant. Hosts and guests from Torrance have included Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Olloque, Mr. and Mrs. George Gussman, Roy and Mattie Curry, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. R. M. Nielson and Mr. and Mrs. William Loesch.

All members and friends are invited. There will be a small donation.

Public Dinner

Torrance Teens, sponsored by the Moose lodge, will hold a dime-a-dip dinner Friday evening at 6:30 p.m. at the Moose Hall on Carson St. Both fish and meat will be served. The public is invited.

Dance Club, Plays Hosts

The Drifters, a Lomita Square Dance club, played host at a get-acquainted dance Friday evening July 29 to local beginning square dance groups. Irene and Steve Nosler served as co-chairmen of the dance committee.

Caller George Perry performed under a ceiling of blue lights and sparkling stars, designed, with a huge wall mural of a sunset, to represent twilight on the desert. This decor was designed by Julie Peterson and Ron Moody, both art students at El Camino College.

Refreshments, highlighted by an ornately decorated cake, were served by Rose and Jim Roberts. Entertainments during the intermission were folk dances by Janet and David Farnsworth, a "Roaring 20's" Charleston by Joan Leatherman and two modern swing numbers by Carol and Sam Railing. The entertainment, planned by Peety Brooks, included the awarding of many valuable door prizes to guests.

The Drifters dance every Friday evening from 8 to 11 p.m. at 1932 Pacific Coast Highway. Visitors are welcome.

The club held a combination board meeting and swim party on Monday night, Aug. 1 at the Manhattan Beach home of Jackie and L.B. Nichols. Co-presidents Dee and Bob Howell presided at the pool-side meeting. New club costumes were planned.

Charter Buses For Bowl Trip

As its second Donor affair, Temple Menorah Sisterhood will sponsor a "bus to bowl" night on Saturday evening, Aug. 13. Chartered buses will transport members to the Hollywood Bowl, announced Mrs. George Nedleman, chairman.

Program highlights will include music from George Gershwin, featuring pianist Andre Previn and a ballet from "An American in Paris."

Reservations may be made by calling Mmes. Lee Solomon, Jack Bozeman, Ben Kaufman, Sam Katz, Sidney Siegel, or Edward Sokolski.
