

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Burrow Now at Home in Torrance

Miss Joy Colleen McGuire, daughter of Mrs. May McGuire, 21529 S. Menlo Ave., became the bride of Gothen DeWayne Burrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nolen Burrow on July 8, at an evening wedding at the Torrance First Assembly of God Church. The couple spent a honeymoon in Bakersfield and are now at home at 616 E. Carson St.

Mr. Irvin C. McGuire, eldest brother of the bride, came from Japan to give her in marriage. For her wedding she wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle fashioned with a scalloped scoop neckline studded with pearls and sequins. The fitted bodice had long pointed sleeves and the bouffant skirt was of lace and tulle. A pearl tiara held the illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of white orchids and carnations.

Mrs. Dorothy Day was her sister's matron of honor. She wore orchid satin brocade with a nylon organza overskirt. Her Colonial bouquet was of deep orchid carnations.

The bride's nieces served as bridesmaids. They are Miss Linda Walker and Miss Mary Carole Bittick of Washington, D.C. Both were gowned in orchid taffeta and each carried a Colonial bouquet of pale orchid carnations.

Theresa Day, wearing a white crystalline and nylon organza frock was the flower girl and the rings were carried by Dennis McGuire.

Bill Whitlock stood as best man and ushers were Samuel Waggon and Lonny McGuire. The Rev. William T. Holcomb officiated at the vow exchange.

A reception for the 200 wedding guests was held at the home of the bride's mother, Misses La Donna Walker and Anita Covey were in charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Burrow was graduated from the Banning High school in 1959. Her husband attended school in Higley, Ariz.

Maternity Tea Given By Hospital Auxiliary

Auxiliary to the Little Company of Mary Hospital entertained at its first Maternity Tea in the spacious tea room at the new hospital on Sunday July 3 at 3 p.m. Approximately 100 expectant mothers and their husbands attended.

Mrs. Frank H. Forester, president of the Auxiliary, received the guests and presented Sister Margaret Mary who is in charge of the maternity floor at the hospital.

Assisting Mrs. Forester were Mrs. Clarence Van Lingen, first vice president and chairman of the event; Mrs. Laurence Smith, second vice president; Mrs. Anthony Daly, membership chairman; Mrs. Ben Kuchar, volunteer chairman; Mrs. Marie Isley, Mrs. Charles Kirsnes, Mrs. George Leverenz, members of the Advisory Board and Mrs. Vincent Tyrrell.

The tea table was covered with a pointed venise cloth.

The floral arrangement, water lilies in the various shades of orchid in a crystal epergne, was made by Mrs. Victor Benstead. On either side of the arrangement were tall dark lavender candles in silver holders.

Sister Margaret Mary talked on the facilities at the hospital and guests were taken on a tour of the maternity floor by the hostesses and Sister Margaret Mary.

Guests were then served refreshments. Mrs. Forester presided at the coffee urn. Mrs. Laurence Smith served punch. Mrs. Marie Isley was in charge of the guest book.

This event will be repeated by auxiliary members who work consistently with the Sisters of the Little Company of Mary who opened the elaborate new hospital on Torrance Blvd. last January.
