South High School:

All students who live in the following elementary attendance areas: Hillside, Meadow Park, Waltheria.
All students who live west of Hawthorne Blvd., and south of Torrance Blvd.

All students who live in the Wood and Adams elementary attendance areas. This does not include students who attended Torrance High School during 1959-60.

Torrance High School:

All students who live in the following elementary attendance areas: Fern-Greenwood, Madrona, and Torrance Elementary.

All students in grades 10 through 12 who live in Torrance west of Hawthorne Blvd., south of Del Amo Blvd., and north of Torrance Blvd. and attended Torrance High School during 1959-60.

All students in grades 10 through 12 from Wood and Adams elementary attendance areas and attended Torrance High School during 1959-60.

HIGH COST OF EDUCATION . . . Visible evidence of the increased cost of educating a youngster in the local school district is displayed here by district librarians Mary Long and Lynn Shidder. Twelve years ago $100 would buy 44 books, but today the same $100 will buy only 28 books, or little more than half as many. Inflation and increased enrollments are creating many problems for the local district.

Los Angeles City Schools Open September 12 for Fall Term

Students who will attend Los Angeles city schools were told today they will be expected to report to classes on Monday, Sept. 12. The announcement was made by Superintendent of Schools Ellis A. Jarvis. More than 550,000 youngsters are expected to trek back into classrooms on that day.

School officials have estimated that total elementary enrollment will exceed 350,000 students. More than 100,000 adults will also be enrolled as pupils in the schools.

The school calendar provides for 86 teaching days during the fall semester and 92 teaching days in the spring for a total of 178 days. The end of the school year will be Friday, June 16, 1961.

LOTS OF CALLS

Six telephone operators handle an average of 4800 calls a day during the annual Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona. Dates for 1960 fair are Sept. 16 through Oct. 2.

SENSATION

Sway-O-Rama, one of world's most sensational aerial acts, is billed for two free shows daily at 1960 Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona, Sept. 16 through Oct. 2.
