. . . Ann Landers

My girl friend is very sweet. She's quite and hard to know, and I'm beginning to think she has a sly side that no one would guess.

I felt sorry for Bernice because she didn't have a date three weeks ago. I had to go out of town with my folks so I asked my boy friend to do me a favor and take Bernice.

Well, Sid and Bernice have been sticking together like glue ever since. She keeps thanking me for fixing her up and says "You'll never know how you've changed my life!" Well, MY life is changed, too, and I don't like it. How can I get my boy friend back? — BIG HEARTED NUT

Dear Big Hearted: You can't lock up a guy and put the blinders on his eyes so he won't see anyone else. If after one date, Bernice was able to do such a complete job of spiriting away your boy friend, he was mighty ripe for picking. If it weren't Bernice, it would be someone else. Forget about Sid, and cast about in other waters.

Confidential to BOILING POINT: Simmer down. An announcement is not the same as an invitation and does not mean you must send a gift. It merely lets you know the hitching took place.

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? It so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before, You Marry—Is It Love Or Sex?", enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright, 1960, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Attend Theatre

Eeny, meeny, miney, mo...

Oh, I wish I could make up my mind. They're all so nice. Eeny is a springy sole casual with lots of get up and go. Meeny is a "convertible" with the top down. (A low-cut casual that converts from the lucky Roman coin to free initials of your choice.) Miney is a "hip" boot with a snap-on Roman coin. And Mo—is a moc—but a new up-beat version with a pointed toe. I know what I'll do. They're so inexpensive ($3.99 and $4.99), I'll take 'em all. (Daddy willing!)
