MRS. HARELL LEE MALOY
 ... On Wedding Day
 (Portrait by Seeman)

Maxwell-Maloy Nuptials Read in Candlelight Rite

First Presbyterian Church in San Pedro was the setting for the candlelight wedding ceremony on Sept. 10 uniting Miss Nancy Lou Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert Brenneman, 1702 W. 244th St. Lomita and Harrell Lee Maloy. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Maloy, 2005 Middlebrook Rd., Torrance.

Candles were lighted on the flower banked altar by Sharon Monroe and Deanna Brenneman. Mrs. Dorothy Searcy played the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Lu McMinn who sang, "If I Could Tell You," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The Rev. G. Henry Green officiated at the marriage ceremony.

Mr. Brenneman walked to the altar with the bride. She wore an Alfredo Angelo original wedding gown of white silk organza over white satin. The princess style creation had a V-neckline, long tapered sleeves and the full skirt fell into a Cathedral train. The Cathedral length illusion veil was draped over a high crown of seed pearls and crystal drops. The bridal bouquet was of white chrysanthemums, gardenias, stephanotis and fall leaves.

Mrs. Robert Fenter was the matron of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Melodie Brenneman, Laila Willison, Shirley Washburn and Mrs. Sidney Smith.

All of the attendants wore gowns of white silk organza over white taffeta with gold satin cummerbunds. Their hats were of velvet autumn leaves and they carried a bouquet of bronze and gold chrysanthemums with gold and bronze pompons.

Valerie Allen, gowned as the other attendants, was the flower girl and Gene Smith was the ring bearer.

Larry Bryant stood as best man and ushers were Michael Brenneman, Robert Fenter, Gene Jimenez, and Frank Fisher, Jr.

A reception was held at the Assistance League clubhouse. Hostesses were Mmes. Olin Grubbs, Frank Willson, Sam Mavar, John Crocker and Miss Carmen Gonzales. Mrs. Frank Fisher, Jr. registered the guests. Mrs. Charles Veeck and Miss Ardvee Veeck were in charge of the gift table.

After a Las Vegas honeymoon, the couple are now at home at 25725 Walnut St., Lomita.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High School, Harbor Junior College and the Marinello's School of Cosmetology. She is a past honored queen of the Lomita Bethel, Job's Daughters.

Mr. Maloy was graduated from Torrance High School and attended El Camino College.

Vecinas Opens Year On Sept. 29

First Las Vecinas club meeting of the new year under the chairmanship of Mrs. Albert Kurz will feature Dr. Lyndon Babcock, Ph.D., from the Harbor Mental Health Clinic. The program for this meeting to take place on Sept. 29 at 1 p.m. at the Plush Horse restaurant is announced by Mrs. William D. Petersen, program chairman.

Dr. Petersen's topic will be "How to be Happy Though Married." This prominent doctor's background includes 30 years as a clinical psychologist beginning with a school for retarded children in Detroit of which he was the director, 10 years as chief psychologist in a large mental hospital and 15 years in private practice in Detroit, doing marriage and family counseling.

Completing his talk, a question and answer period will be held. The Mental Health Clinic, located in San Pedro, is sponsored by Las Vecinas both financially and with volunteer clerical office help.

The 32 provisionals will be introduced by Mrs. Lee Washington and a tea and social hour will follow.

Lana Tanner-Bob Cotton Married Here on Sept. 1

Miss Lana Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tanner, 20509 S. Raymond Ave. Torrance, became the bride of Bob D. Cotton in a 6:30 o'clock ceremony at the First Methodist Church in Torrance on Thursday evening Sept. 1. Mrs. Nolan Walkup of Amarillo, Texas is mother of the bridegroom.

Bridesmaids were Miss Laila Tanner and Miss Paul Soupe. Honor attendant was Mrs. Ken Norris. All were gowned in pale blue brocade with blue georgette overskirts. They carried apple blossom glameillas tied with blue streamers.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She wore a Chantilly lace and satin wedding gown. Scallops of lace outlined the cameo neckline of the lace bodice. A tulle overskirt edged with Chantilly lace over satin formed the bouffant skirt which fell into a chapel train. The dress was designed by the bride and made by her mother. Her veil was applied with Chantilly lace and decorated with seed pearls to match the halo headpiece. She carried a cascade of white glameillas and stephanotis.

Little Betty Fonti, in white brocade and georgette over taffeta, was the flower girl.

William Fonti stood as best man and ushers were Perry Soupe and John Morris.

Rev. G. S. Zimmerman, pastor, officiated at the marriage. Mrs. Eva Brundin, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied the bridegroom who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held in the Fellowship hall at the church. Miss Elaine Scroggin registered the guests.

The bride was graduated from Gardena High and attended Harbor and Compton colleges.

Her husband recently completed four years with the United States Navy and has entered El Camino college.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Walkup came from Amarillo to attend the wedding.
