

Sunday School Registration Continuing at St. Andrew's

Registration of Sunday School classes for the fall term will be continued Sunday in the patio at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in downtown Torrance, according to Mrs. Jessica Jelf, director of religious education for the parish.

A registration fee of $2.50 is asked of each family to defray costs of teaching materials, and other curriculum expenses, Mrs. Jelf said. The payment of the fee is voluntary, however, and parents are requested to register their children even if it is inconvenient to give the fee at this time, she said.

OTHER ACTIVITIES of the parish during coming weeks include the annual enchilada sale Saturday in the Parish Hall under the direction of St. Cecilia's Guild. Telephone orders may be given to Mrs. A. Smith at FA 8-2026 or to Mrs. Grace Hinshaw at FA 8-1346 ahead of time, and the enchiladas picked up between 11 a.m. and 12 noon Saturday at the church.

Theme of the annual bazaar to be held in mid-October was announced this week by The Women of St. Andrew's. Following last year's successful Hawaiian theme, the women this year will provide a circus theme for the affair.

A NEW FAMILY, the Keith Lindstedts, will be baptised in ceremonies at the church Sunday at 12:15, according to the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector of the parish.

The new church family consists of Mr. and Mrs. Lindstedt and four sons, Lin Walter, Tye William, Kevin Jonathan, and Greg Keith.

St. Michael and All Angels Day will be observed with a 6:30 a.m. Holy Communion on Sept. 29, and the study-prayer group has resumed weekly sessions at 10:15 a.m. each Thursday, followed by communion services at 11 a.m.

The men's study group, scheduled to meet once a month during the coming year, had its first meeting of the fall season last evening. The group will be studying the Acts of the Apostles, and will hear outstanding speakers on the subject during the ensuing months.

Fencing Class To Open Here

En garde! That's the rallying cry each Wednesday evening at North High School gymnasium, where fencing lessons are being offered under auspices of the Torrance Recreation Department. Instruction in the ancient art of swordplay is being given from 7:30 until 9:30 p.m. by Jeep LaMont, who's nationally known in the fencing fraternity.

There is a fee of 50 cents per session which goes towards the purchase of participants' equipment.

always open to your need!
