Local Churches Join Lutheran Hour Program

Four South Bay churches made special provisions for participation in the Lutheran Hour Rally to be conducted at 3:15 p.m. in the stadium of East Los Angeles College Sunday.

John's Lutheran, El Segundo, and Immanuel, Redondo Beach, made plans to charter buses to enable their members and friends of the Lutheran Hour to attend the event expected to attract over 20,000 without parking and traffic problems.

Manhattan Beach, will drive directly to the stadium, located at Brooklyn and Atlantic, Los Angeles.

CHILDREN of the El Segundo and Redondo Beach churches participated in the musical portion of the program, while the adult choir of Immanuel Lutheran joined a chorus of over 1500 voices under the baton of Director Henry Elling of Santa Monica.

Addressing an attendance which was expected to exceed that of all previous rallies sponsored by the Lutheran Laymen's League in Southern California, Dr. Oswald Hoffmann, regular Lutheran Hour speaker, observed the beginning of the 28th season of broadcasting of one of the world's three most widely heard programs as he spoke on the subject, "Christ Amid Chaos."

DR. HOFFMANN, the third Lutheran Hour speaker to assume the Lutheran Laymen's League's "air pulpit," last appeared as a local rally speaker when he addressed 11,000 in the Hollywood Bowl in 1956. He succeeds the Rev. Arain Oldsen of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and the late Dr. Walter A. Meier, originator of the international religious broadcast.

Pastor Wells To Continue With Series

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church of Lomita will hear another sermon in the "Foundations for Happiness" series at both the 8:30 and 10:50 morning services, Sept. 25th. This message by the pator, Robert A. Wells, will be on the fifth commandment.

The morning subject will be "Obey or Go Aaya," Mr. Wells stated. "This is another of God's laws that parents are to be honored, but to be honored they must be honorable. One major factor in causing juvenile and parental delinquency is found in a failure to keep the fifth commandment of God. The cure for delinquency is to accept and obey God's law."

The guest speaker at the Sunday evening service will be Rev. Floyd Rolf. Mr. Rolf was interim pastor of the Lomita church when Mr. Wells became pastor in 1950. Pastor Wells will be in a revival in the First Southern Baptist Church of Oxnard through the morning service on Oct. 2.
