

Culottes Spark Fashion Scene

The split personality of culottes has become even more unusual, exciting and complex!

Culottes, with their skirt-like look, appear in dresses, lingerie and sleepwear . . . as well as being a new sportswear fashion!

This season, culottes go to all lengths—from full length dinner gowns (all the rage), dress length town costumes, to Bermuda-length fun outfits!

The shorter culottes look great over tights and topped with an overblouse. Knee socks too, will be right in style.

Versatility is the big point of culottes . . . combining the practicality of pants with the feminine look of a skirt. Best of all, culottes are wonderfully flattering for any figure.

Fun Fashions Show Zest For Casual Living

Fashions for fun will be more fun to wear than ever before. They're really gay . . . in bright colors, bold patterns, fuzzy and nubby textures, and extremely clever styling.

Newest fashions on the scene are knickers. Some appear with matching tops others are designed to be worn with overblouses and bulky sweaters.

Appearing again this season, in new guises, are culottes. They have moved up from the ankle-length at-home costumes to dress-like designs for town, and above-the-knee styles that are strictly for fun.

Kilts come into their own and expand the more feminine approach to practical sportswear.

There will be even more slim

FUN FASHIONS FOR WINTER ACTIVITIES

Even winter sports accessories are fun-makers, too! Ski-slope mittens, caps and scarves, for example, often feature enormous cuffs of novelty fur, combined with gay knit or colorful leather.

Caps are everywhere — in long, tasseled types, stocking caps, hood-scarves, bonnets. There are scarves of fur which may be tied over the head.

When skirts or knickers are worn, there will be stockings to the knee peeping out below in bright colors and exciting knit patterns.

pants, and shorts in every length are not overlooked. As with culottes, these will take long, and more bulky or soft, tops!

Furs and tunics, two top stars in the fall fashion picture, come into the spotlight in the sportswear scene.

Chincilla fabrics will be particularly popular, tailored as Bermudas, ponchos, overblouses, separates and ski costumes . . . but there are many kinds of furs and fakes to be seen.

In true with the brighter, bolder look of novelty sportswear are giant wool plaids, vivid violet tones, shocking pinks and yellows, vibrant blues and greens.

Happily, now there are fashions for fun for everyone of every age . . . generous perfect or slight in figure!

High Style In Slacks For Season

Although traditionally styled sports slacks are far and away the most popular for those leisure hours away from work — patterned wool slacks styled along casual lines stand out this fall as the most eye-catching.

More and more suburbanites with a yen for fashion are getting fitted with these fancy sport slacks, reports the Wool Bureau.

This fall, wool slacks have an authentic country look. Men in the suburbs are taking to them because they like the air of refinement about them, and that real wooly look that can be found only in all-wool slacks. Sporty, patterned and without gimmicks, they're in good taste.

For week-end living, there are bold plaids and neat small checks . . . window pane plaids and wool herringbone . . . in large district checks in twill-weave worsted . . . classic glen plaids . . . compound color worsteds . . . shadow stripes . . . new all-wool patterned trousers all wool good with blazers and solid color sports jackets!

These provide the right degree of contrast and color essential this year for a well-coordinated outfit.

No matter how fine the quality of a pair of slacks they cannot look well or wear well unless they fit properly. So it pays to be exacting when choosing slacks.

Here are some check points: Wool trousers should hang straight from the waist, showing no wrinkles in front or at the seat when the wearer stands up. Trousers cuffs should hang straight in the back and show a slight break over the instep in front.

Here's good news! Wool slacks now come with permanent-creases. Over one million pairs were sold last year. New technical developments keep trouser creases razor sharp, even in the rain. Whether you choose country slacks or continental slacks, just look inside for the permanent-crease label.

$1 Million Mark Hit By B of A

The Maia and Carson branch of Bank of America has reached the million-dollar mark in deposits less than two months after it opened, it was revealed today by manager Richard E. Ogle.

Ogle said this reflects the excellent economic health of the South Bay communities.

Opened at 180 E. Carson St. on July 22, the branch is the bank's third in the Torrance area. It hit the $1,000,000 total in commercial and savings deposits Sept. 16, and new accounts are still being opened at a brisk pace, according to Ogle.

"This is an important event for us," he said. "It justified our confidence in the economic well-being of the Carson-Dominguez community and the South Bay, and is a good indication of the tremendous growth potential of this area."

Assorted Colors Spark Lingerie

ASSORTED COLORS 12 . . . For fall, lingerie designers dipped their paint brushes in colors that are new to the intimate apparel picture . . . and have come up with loads of luscious colors.

Unusual are the many soft lilacs . . . important are the beige and champagne. Vivid blues, greens, and reds will still be seen . . . but the trend is to more subdued hues.

Color-matched sets of slips or half slips and panties, well received last season, make a repeat performance for fall!
