Clyde McCoy's Opening at Marineland Hailed Widely

One of the living legends of jazz, Clyde McCoy, and his Dixieland orchestra opened to a tumultuous ovation from capacity crowds this past week end at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes.

The "Sugar Blues Man," whose waa-waa trumpet helped sell many millions of records during the 30s, is marking his initial appearance on the West Coast since retiring some years ago from the musical world. He and his seven-piece group will entertain in the dining spot's "Porpoise Room" through Oct. 23.

Acclaimed as America's most imitated instrumentalist, McCoy brings his special brand of jazz to a new generation of fans, as well as to the long-time following of his waa-waa sugar blues tones.

Thrifty Drug Drivers Get Safety Kudos

Thrifty Drug Stores, the largest drug, variety and junior department store chain in the West, presented safe driving awards to 24 company truck drivers recently at an Ambassador Hotel breakfast meeting. Presentations were made by Bernard Stillman, traffic manager of the huge drug firm, who announced the awards collectively represented 141 years of safe driving experience.

Top award was given to Luther Roberts, of Burbank, who received an award for 17 years of accident-free, safe driving. Officer Nick Roderman, of the Traffic Education section of the Los Angeles Police Department, delivered the key address of the meeting, and also showed a film on traffic safety.

Manager Stillman revealed Thrifty's record for safe driving was established during an all time one year high of 792,000 miles, an increase of over 100 per cent in total mileage driven by Thrifty trucks 8 years ago.

Bringing to the mainland one of the South Sea's top entertainers, The Polynesian of Torrance has signed one of Tahiti's outstanding dancers, Tetua Paheo, to appear at the tropical restaurant for an indefinite engagement.

Tetua Paheo, who opens Sunday, Oct. 9, comes to The Polynesian direct from Paapeete, where she was a headliner at the Royal Tahitian Hotel and Les Tropiques.

The French-Tahitian dancer was signed by Pete Reitz, general manager of The Polynesian, on the eve of his departure for Tahiti, where he is now searching for new talent to make its U.S. debut at the exotic restaurant.

In presenting the awards, Stillman said, "We at Thrifty fully appreciate the effort and professional skill required to maintain an accident-free record."

Tetua Paheo will perform twice nightly, featuring the provocative, spine-tingling dances of Bora Bora and Tahiti. Among them are the ancient and sensual "Otea," "Aparima," "Ute," and "Hivanau."
