Popular Cafe Starts Ninth Year in Area

Now beginning its ninth year is The Pen and Quill, distinguished restaurant "where world travelers dine," which this week is celebrating its eighth birthday anniversary in Manhattan Beach.

Superb dining in beautiful surroundings and gracious, friendly hospitality have contributed to the success of The Pen and Quill, whose private-party and banquet facilities are also notable for their excellence.

Founded by world traveler and foreign correspondent Bob Reuben, who is joined by Ira Schwartz and Len Reuben in

Businessman Enters Slogan Contest, Wins

William S. Dean, manager of a Monterey Park business and a resident of 4742 W. 191st St., can take pictures of his family these days, thanks to a Hawaiian Holiday contest he entered recently.

Adjudged a second-place winner in the slogan contest conducted by a food baking firm, Dean was awarded a new, expensive 35mm camera for his entry.

The camera arrived Friday, the first contest prize for Dean, who admit's it's the first time he has entered a major contest, greeting patrons at the restaurant, The Pen and Quill offers an international menu. It is graced by the foods of romantic faraway places.
