

Panorama of Progress Marks Tenth Anniversary for SARC

The Southwest Assn. for Retarded Children was represented at a four-day "Panorama of Progress" that marked the 10th anniversary of the national movement to aid the mentally retarded. President Harold McBride announced today.

The local group was one of 800 state and community units taking part in the decennial convention of the National Association for Retarded Children in Minneapolis Oct. 5 through 8. Named as proxy for Southwest Assn. for Retarded Children were Clair Gurgener, president of the California Council for Retarded Children, and Joseph Costa, 1st vice president, as alternate.

A decade ago, 42 parents met at Minneapolis determined to improve the lot of five million retarded in the United States, McBride explained. They started a nation-wide demonstration that the retarded can be helped to develop, learn, and work. The local program started in the year of 1959.

The Southwest Area of Los Angeles County is still far short of a truly adequate program of education and training for the retarded, McBride said, but there has been important progress.

The Southwest Assn. sponsors a teen-age party time, on the fourth Friday of each month, Scout Troop 777, Cub Pack 777C, and has started a recreational and hobby crafts program in co-operation with the Los Angeles Dept. of Parks and Recreation, in Lennex activity center one day each week for three hours.

There are some school classes for retarded children in the southwest area of Los Angeles County. In 1950, when the parents movement was organized virtually none of these facilities existed.

Board Studies Sale of Two School Sites

Possible sale of two pieces of property owned by the Torrance Unified School District is being considered by the Board of Education. Funds from the sale might be used to add to funds in a very tight budget.

The two pieces of property in question are the "old" Walteria School site, just off Pacific Coast Hwy., and about two acres of the Columbia School site, 186th near Hawthorne. The Columbia site requires less space than the old El Nido site upon the same area.

The board has been holding the property in hopes that prices would increase to bring a good return.

Noted Artist To Visit in Area Oct. 21

Dr. Marques E. Reitzel, California Artist-in-Residence, in pursuit of an elusive goal 'to paint the face of a state', is coming to Torrance on Friday, Oct. 21.

Since August 1959, Dr. Reitzel has sketched and painted from Yuba City southward to Santa Maria and Bakersfield in beginning his 'biography in pictures' of California. His portfolio contains a startling record that ranges from hop kilns to campus scenes, from seascapes to mountain peaks; but he says the surface of his subject is barely scratched.

Rummage Sale Dates Are Set

More than 150,000 items will be offered at the "World's Largest Rummage Sale" to be held Thursday, Oct. 27, by the Pasadena Auxiliary of Boys Republic, a non-profit, non-sectarian farm school for boys from broken homes.

The sale will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Pasadena Civic Auditorium. Last year the sale was attended by some 10,000 persons, many coming throughout the Southland.

Bargains will be offered in a wide variety of articles, and will include an exhibit of collector's items of art, furniture, fabrics and literature.

Akron to Show Italian Styles Here Tomorrow

There appears to be a breakthrough in the battle to bring exclusive Italian dresses and women's suits within reach of the average budget.

Long desired by the fashion-conscious American woman, these Italian imports were displayed on Monday, Oct. 3 at a Fashion Show sponsored by the Akron Co. of Los Angeles.

THE DRESSES and suits are not only manufactured in Italy. They are also designed there, by some of Italy's leading couturiers. Now released to the American market through Akron, the fashions are available next Monday, Oct. 10, at the six Akron stores in the Los Angeles area.

Included in the array are houndstooth patterns, boucles, paisleys, plaids, tweeds and flannels, to list a few.

All are 100 per cent wool and bear the distinctive imprint of continental styling as well as the label of the House of Rosier, one of Italy's leading fashion dynasties.

THE FASHION Show, held at the Akron Decorator Showroom in Los Angeles (interestingly converted to suggest an Italian garden, complete with Travertine tables, flowers and wine) displayed a sampling before some 40 surprised guests.

There was audible astonishment when the price tags were revealed: $8.99 on the dresses and $19.99 on the two-piece suits.

The garments were modeled by professional models and the show and hosted by Mrs. Nancy Morgan. The Akron has scheduled both dresses and suits for Monday arrival at their stores.

Each store will carry a selection of close to 1000 pieces, a vast and dazzling choice for the wide-eyed woman. It certainly looks like a breakthrough!

Schools May Sue Vandals, Board Hints

Suits to recover damages caused by vandals are apprehended, parents are billed for damages. Most parents do pay for the damages, Assistant Superintendent S. E. Waldrip said. However, those who make no effort to pay may be taken to court, it was indicated. Last year, Vandalism cost Torrance schools more than $25,000.
