St. Andrew's Has Sunday School Classes for All Grades Weekly

Sunday school classes have begun regular fall programs at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., with large enrollments in classes from the nursery through high school.

Jessica Jelf, director of religious education for the parish, reports that teaching material suited to each grade level has been acquired, and that capable teachers are teaching basic concepts of the Bible and the heritage of the Episcopal Church.

NURSERY AND baby sitting service is available at church each Sunday during the 9:15 a.m. and 11 a.m. services.

Children from 2 to 5 attend nursery kindergarten where Bible based materials are stressed, including handwork and singing. The group conducts its own service in which all the children participate.

Children in the first grade and above attend worship services with the adults at 9:15 and then leave for classes prior to the rector's sermon. Grades 1 and 2 continue with Bible based studies while the older U. S. Army Pvt. John Andrade, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Andrade, 1414 W. 216th St., is undergoing basic infantry training at Fort Ord, Calif., on the Monterey Peninsula.

Andrade, who was employed here by Quality Aluminum Awning Co. before entering the service, will be sent to an Army specialist school, or given advanced infantry training at the end of the eight-week training program.

Family participation is the secret of the strength and success of the Sunday School program," she said.

Marine Pvt. Donald M. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Johnson of 2433 W. 238th St., completed recruit training Sept. 28 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego. The 11-week course included instruction in all basic military subjects and infantry weapons.
