She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Ida Kendall; her father, Clitus Kendall; a sister,

AMVET CHIEF . . . Commander Melford Gage of the South Bay Post of AMVETS, who took over the post recently, has announced a Veterans' Day dance at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave., for Friday night, Slim Edwards and his orchestra will provide the music.

Army PFC LeRoy E. Peterson Jr., 19, whose parents live at 1054 Avenue E, participated with other personnel from the Division's 4th Cavalry in Exercise Yellow Jacket II in Korea. The exercise ended Nov. 1.

The field training exercise, emphasizing night withdrawal and attack, was part of the continuous training program conducted by the division.

Peterson, a supply clerk in the cavalry's Combat Support Company, entered the Army in September 1959 and received basic training at Fort Ord. He arrived overseas in March of this year.

Peterson is a graduate of Redondo Beach Union High School.

Girl Scout Troop 252

Various activities were enjoyed by Girl Scout Troop 252 during the month of October. Members attending the meeting of the Women's Chapter 44 at the Torrance Moose Lodge on Oct. 5 were: Christine Epperheimer, Cheral Smith, Linda Davis, Kathy Phillips, and Shelley Petrosino. Christmas films on Moose Heart and Moose Haven were shown.

Tray favors of apples decorated in Halloween colors were made by girls of Troop 252 and given to the Children's Ward at the Harbor General Hospital for a Halloween treat.

Members of the Troop participated in a cook-out and trail laying was part of the program.

Pennies were dropped in a box at the regular troop meeting according to the age of each girl in remembrance of Juliette Low's birthday, founder of the Girl Scouts.
