HELENA DOMINGUEZ

Funeral services for Helena Dominguez, 49, of 1641 W. Carson St., were held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel yesterday morning with the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, officiating.

Mrs. Dominguez, who had lived here for 48 years, was a native of Pennsylvania. She died at her home Wednesday.

She is survived by her husband, Raul; a sister, Anna Gamarino of Torrance; and three brothers, Johnnie and Louis Resault of New Jersey, and Steve Resault of Buffalo, N.Y.

Interment was in Roosevelt Cemetery.

KATHERINE A. LANZ

Requiem High Mass was celebrated yesterday at St. Jarlath's Church in Oakland for Mrs. Katherine A. Lanz, a Torrance resident for 30 years, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McNeil of 1744 Andro Ave.

Mrs. Lanz, who came to Torrance with her family in 1920, was a graduate of Torrance High School. For the past seven years, she has worked for the Blue Cross in Oakland. She died Wednesday night in the University of California Hospital in Berkeley after a long illness.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jane Unkelbach and Mrs. Pat Smith; a son, James, and three grandchildren, all of Oakland.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by six sisters, Mrs. Celina Dean of Torrance, Dolores Fayne of Pasadena, Florence Sprague of Moro Bay, Veronica Tepper of Menlo Park, Frances Goss of Redondo Beach, and Mary May of Eagle Rock; and by two brothers, Thomas and Joseph McNeil, both of Torrance.

One cause of mental retardation is preventable because it has been learned how to uncover "PKU," a metabolic disorder which affects the brain. Discovered in time, a special diet will prevent the disease from harming the brain.

the county reorganized its municipal court system early in the last decade.

He has since been one of three judges serving the South Bay Municipal Court District, sitting here and in Redondo Beach with Judges Otto B. Willett and Donald Armstrong.

Judge MacFaden resides in Redondo Beach with his wife, and has practiced law in that city for many years. He also was graduated from Redondo High School, UCLA, and the Loyola University Law School.

The advances made in educating the retarded have resulted in Retarded Children's Week. "Retarded Children Can Be Helped."

Deputy Sheriff To Speak Here

A member of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department will address members of the Torrance Civitan Club Wednesday evening at Caprinis on the general subject of juvenile delinquency. The program will be in keeping with the club's motto of "Builders of Good Citizenship," according to James "Chic" Cicchini, publicity chairman for the local organization.

Theme of Radiocast Reported by Church

"Christian Science: The Revelation of God's Healing and Protecting Law" will be the theme of the lecture to be rediacted over Station KIEV (870kc), this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of Twenty-fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, Los Angeles, Olympic Blvd. and Cochran Ave. The lecturer, Neil H. Bowles, C. S. B., of Atlanta, Georgia, is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

'Church of the Air' Program Topic Listed

"How Can I Help the World Situation?" will be the subject of a Christian Science program to be given on KNX Radio's "Church of the Air" series, today at 8:05 to 8:30 a.m.

The speaker will be Martin Broones, Christian Science teacher and practitioner. Assisting him will be the well-known concert artist, Mary Dean, soloist, and William Albert Luce, organist.

The program will be under the auspices of the Christian Science Committee on Publication for Southern California.

Zodys Sets Store Hours For Holidays

Zodys Complete Self Service Department Store announces new hours to accommodate the holiday shopping crowds. Zodys will now be open every day including Sunday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. through Christmas.

New stocks of Christmas merchandise have been received at Zodys and are now on sale at Zodys low prices. Christmas decorations, artificial Christmas trees and a wide range of gift items including toys, appliances, fashions for the family, accessories and hi-fi and stereo equipment, are available.

Richard H. Wolfe, vice president of the Zodys chain, states: "We are prepared for a large Christmas shopping crowd this year and are offering top quality merchandise at lower prices than ever. In fact, absolutely nobody undersells Zodys."

Zodys two stores are located at Hawthorne and 182nd St., Redondo Beach, and Chapman and Brookhurst, Garden Grove. These stores are the first two

Local Realty Firm Given State Honor

The Fredericks Realty of Torrance was named a first place winner in the California Real Estate Assn. Realtor Promotion contest for their entry in the business letterheads classification, held at the recent convention of the 32,500 member association held in San Francisco, it was announced by Edward L. Callahan, president of the association.

The Fredericks Realty display was on view throughout the five-day convention. The Fredericks Realty received a beautifully engraved plaque in recognition of their accomplishment, presented by Rolf Beere, real estate advertising manager of the San Francisco Examiner, chairman of the judges.

A record number of entries were received in the contest this year, according to Beere. The entries were on display at the Masonic Auditorium in San Francisco during the CREA convention.

Judges for the contest were Beere, Art Blum, president Public Relations and Advertising Agency and A. J. Horowitz, Pacific Coast marketing coordinator for the Hearst Advertising Service.

The Realtor display contest is held each year to encourage better real estate service to the public. It also provides an excellent means for the exchange of ideas in promoting real estate sales.
