

Six North High Students Take Museum Course

Six students from North High School, Torrance, are getting a behind-the-scenes look at the Los Angeles County Museum.

Carol D. Robinson and Lynne Waters, both Juniors, are enrolled in the natural science workshop.

James Ford, Jay Lippman, and Wandell McCorvey, all seniors, and David Lippman, a junior, are attending the history workshop.

These six students were selected on the basis of teachers' recommendations and intensive testing by the Museum staff. The classes meet for two hours each Saturday morning until Jan. 14.

The purpose of the natural science workshop is to offer to the superior students of Los Angeles County an opportunity to study with the science staff of the Museum. The first semester includes a general background of biology and a survey of the fields open to the young scientist. This study provides a foundation for the second semester work which is introductory training in laboratory and field technique in specific subjects.

The history workshop gives outstanding students an opportunity to study the implements of past periods which make history three-dimensional. They are also shown behind-the-scenes functions of museum curators and gain experience in using written historical sources.

BMHS Debate Team Second In Tourney

Bishop Montgomery's Forensic Club took second place in the Catholic Forensic League's open tournament in debate and individual events, held at Loyola High School last Friday. In all, 18 Catholic high schools from the Los Angeles area competed.

Loyola High took first place in the tournament. Other competing schools included Notre Dame, Serra, St. Bernard's, St. Anthony's of Long Beach, Villa Cabrini, Chaminade, Providence, Immaculate Heart, Alemany, Servite, Creape, Marymount, Corvallis, Conaty, St. Mary's, La Salle, and Mount Carmel.

Gold medals went to Bishop Montgomery debaters Paul Abegg and Richard Soja. Certificates of excellence in debating went to Bill Stoeger, Michael Mott, Joe Allen, Robert Vasquez, Rosemary Abend, and Kathy Malcombe.

In individual events, superior awards went to Sue Wood, Kathy Tyrrell, and Carol Decima—all in the field of dramatic interpretation.

A certificate of excellence went to Patty Rothwell in dramatic interpretation. Other excellence certificates were awarded to Patricia Kelly and Joe Allen in original oratory, and to Mike Mott and Kathy Tyrrell for impromptu speaking.

Father Leonard Unger of the faculty of Bishop Montgomery is coach of debate and speech.

Word of Paul In Church Text

"Glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." This exhortation of the apostle Paul to the Corinthians is the Golden Text of the Lesson - Sermon on "Soul and Body" in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

The need to glorify God in our body as well as in our soul and spirit is accentuated by Jesus when he healed the man with the unclean spirit. Mark's Gospel relates that "Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. And they were all amazed."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "The Science of being reveals man as perfect, even as the Father is perfect, because the Soul, or Mind, of the spiritual man is God, the divine Principle of all being, and because this real man is governed by Soul, instead of sense, by the law of Spirit, not by the so-called laws of matter."
