Recently in the metropolitan newspapers, articles have appeared telling the need of adult participation in Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, and other youth organizations.
In our own Torrance Herald, there have been several articles also.
However, there is still a crying need for adults who are interested in our teenagers and their welfare. There are long waiting lists for girls to get into each program level of Girl Scouts. This list is one that will not be eliminated. Girls from 10 to 14 lack available leaders.
The most disgraceful list is the one for girls 15 to 18 years of age. Girls that need help and advice at a crucial time. These are girls that could be teenage delinquents.

A headline from one of the metropolitan newspapers recently read, "90-mph Spill Hurts 9 Teenage Girls. They Were Looking for Something To Do."
I can't help but wonder if any of these mothers or fathers are some of the "I just don't have time" type of parents. How much time will be spent in recuperation.

There is a definite need for leaders on the Girl Scout Intermediate, Junior High, and Senior Girl program levels. These girls need you. They need your guidance and help. Now is the time they need supervised training to channel the excess energy that is bound to come out one way or another.

The one way that energy can be spent is providing child care for voting parents, as the Junior High Scouts of one troop did in the recent election. Other troops spent time reading and visiting with the oldsters in the homes for the aged. Still others plan and carry out entertainment for for the hospitalized children.

A vivid example of the "or another" way teenagers channel restless energy was the above headline, "90-mph Spill Hurts 9 Teenage Girls. They Were Looking for Something To Do."

For information on how you can help, call your local public school and ask for the Troop Organizer. Believe me, you'll have a world of fun helping the girls who need you.

I came home to find my taxes for this year raised almost one half more than last year. With all the people here in California, how can we possibly be taxed so much.
How in God's name are the real poor and retired people going to meet their taxes? How many other people who have worked hard, live from paycheck to paycheck, just before Christmas, too, going to manage?

I say we are the majority—there is but one way to stop this awful burden on the poorer slob—that is to just not send in your tax money—hold back completely.
Make these big shots realize we've been taken for enough. I'm sick and tired of doing without just to keep up the federal government and the state.

Why can't we be given a better chance: or are we to just sit back and take it like fools we are?
