JUST ABOUT RIGHT . . . "This looks about right for me," says young Terry Shepherd, three, of one of the 500 hen turkeys to be given away by Food Giant Markets this weekend. Terry and his mother, Mrs. Gilbert Shepherd, visited Food Giant to look over the possibilities for the Thanksgiving table. Customers may register for the big turkey drawing today through Sunday. Winners need not be present at the drawing, Nov. 20.

Food Giant Set To Observe 9th Year of Service

It's Food Giant's ninth birthday, and in celebration of the big event the supermarket chain will give away 500 plump young hen turkeys to its customers—just in time to satisfy Thanksgiving appetites.

The first Food Giant Market opened just nine years ago this week in Lynwood. Now grown to a total of 35 stores, the chain is noting the occasion by filling its markets with exciting bargains so that all its customers will be in on the celebration.

Visitors to all Food Giant Markets may register for the big turkey drawing this Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Drawings will be held on Sunday, and names of winners will be posted at all markets on Monday, to allow plenty of time for Thanksgiving preparations. Winners need not be present at the drawings.

This anniversary climaxes nine years of rapid growth for Food Giant, keeping pace with the expanding economy of
