and everyone knows it but him. He's very active in civic and cultural affairs so he is often called on to "say a few words." He drones on about trifles and everyone keeps hoping he'll drop from exhaustion but he never does.
I've pleaded with him to make notes and stick to them, but he claims he's a born ad-libber and notes hamper him. Please, Ann, help me. He's been asked to make a five minute speech for his lodge's annual dinner and I know it will be 25 minutes of agony for everyone—ESPECIALLY ME.
Dear Especially: You have my deepest sympathy. I'm well acquainted with the type. They seem to have three months and no ears. The amateur ad-lib artist often confuses lack of preparation with "spontaneous wit." Before he reaches the audience, the audience has reached the exits.
For some unfathomable reason a husband will listen LAST to the one who loves him most—his wife. So, if you can get the head of the program committee to give him a strong hint (in writing) before his next speech, it may help. Suggested line: "Please, five minutes of a prepared speech. The program is long and we would appreciate your cooperation."

Arts-Crafts Club Plans Yule Party

Arts and Craft club was entertained last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Bever with Mrs. Addie Parks and Mrs. Vena Hamilton as co-hostesses. The hostesses served a dessert course prior to a business meeting conducted by Mrs. Florence Childs, president.
Mrs. Mary McDonald reported on TEAC and the group voted money to assist with the Torrance Float in the Rose Parade on New Year's Day.
The club's Christmas party will be held at the Fish Shanty with Mrs. Vivian Cook and Mrs. Helen Carpenter as chairman.
The member exchanged gifts with their "secret pals" and spent the evening working on their art projects.
Attending the meeting were Mes. Maybel C. Banks, Melvina Beckwith, Rolive Bever, Cora Bohrer, Helen Carpenter, Florence Childs, Vivian Cook, Leila Everly, Hazel Fossum, Vena Hamilton, Ruth Hardin, Mae Jones, Ruth Kilgore, Mary McDonald, Bettina Miller, Thelma Miller, Addie Parks, Ethel Peverly, Phyllis Peverly, Fran Snodgrass, Hazel Ward.
Guests were Mrs. Viola Shaw of Denver, and Mrs. Elenor Mayers of Toledo, Ohio.

SCOUTING PROGRAM . . . Mrs. Henry Miller, executive director of the South Bay Council of the Girl Scouts of America, meets with Mother du Sacre Coeur, president of Marymount College, to outline the program of the Scouts. Mother du Sacre Coeur will take part in the South Bay program, after having been a member of the Tarrytown N. Y. group for the past 12 years.

Desk and Derrick Club Elects New Officers

Mrs. Margaret Ericson, executive assistant with driltrol, was unanimously elected president of the Desk and Derrick Club of Long Beach and will be installed at the next meeting, Dec. 9, at the Lafayette Hotel.
Taking office with Mrs. Ericson will be Miss Sarah Beth Smith (Baker Oil Tools, Inc.) first vice president, Miss Marilyn Hart (Shell Oil Co.) 2nd vice president, Miss Muriel Carnahan (Pacific Pumps, Inc.) corresponding secretary, Miss Lucille Kvarnes (Richfield Oil Corp.) recording secretary, Mrs. Frances Meyer (Signal Oil & Gas Co.) treasurer, Miss Freda Kirk (Shell Oil Co.) Mrs. Lois Polak (Signal Oil & Gas Co.) directors, and Miss Alita Durden (Smith Tool Co.) sergeant at arms.
Installing these new officers for 1961 will be Miss Zetta Belle Gregg, first vice president of the Los Angeles Desk and Derrick Club.
Stary Gange, consultant for Southern California Gas Company, will be guest speaker at this meeting. He is widely known throughout the country for his humorous and inspirational talks about Americans. He will speak of the tremendous growth of California and the expanding demand for natural gas in all parts of the nation.
Margaret Ericson is a certified professional secretary and is a member of Legal Secretaries Association and a past president of the Long Beach Chapter of National Secretaries Association.
Margaret was Reservations Chairman for the Desk and Derrick Club for 1959. She also served as Field Trip Chairman in 1960, attended National Convention, Seminar, and Regional meetings in 1959, and was alternate delegate to National Convention in 1960.

Auxiliary Participates In "Operation Handclasp"

Harbor View Unit 217 of the Fleet Reserve Assn., Ladies Auxiliary held its November meeting at Ualbrand Hall in San Pedro with Mrs. William Davis presiding. The annual Christmas dinner was planned at a board meeting held at the home of Mrs. Harry Fralich in Torrance.
The group also decided to participate in the United States Navy project "Operation Handclasp." Each member will contribute toiletries wrapped in a large bath towel for the Formosa orphans. They are also collecting bandages, old sheets and pillow cases for a leper colony in the South Pacific.
Also needed are clean coffee cans, wire coat hangers, used razor blades, discarded Christmas cards, nylon hose and slivers of soap. The first load for Christmas has already sailed but since this is a year round project the drive continues.
Mrs. Tava Miekley of Wilmington reported on the National convention held in Seattle, Wash.
Mrs. Miekley reported that Unit 217 was honorably cited for the work done on the history book by Mrs. Harry Setzer and the publicity book by Mrs. Harry Fralich of Torrance.
Elizabeth Drouillard of San Diego Unit 9 was elected national president. Representatives attended the convention from all 50 states as well as Germany, Philippines, Japan and Korea.

Cardinal's Christmas Party Slated Dec. 11

Invitations are now in the mail for the annual Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children, to be held this year in the Beverly Hilton Hotel International Room on Sunday, Dec. 11, from 2 to 4:30 p.m.
The party is one of the most worthy of the entire year and is the only social event personally sponsored by His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre.
Faces scrubbed and shining, all slicked up in their best little dresses and suits, more than 200 tots, aged 3 to 5 years, from Catholic orphanages, nurseries and foster homes will be the special guests of His Eminence.
The International Room will be opened to its fullest and adult guests will be seated at tables to enjoy the program. Coffee, tea and delicacies will be served. Meanwhile, all children will have their own seated section on the carpeted dance floor right in front of the stage.
A special program will be presented by Lawrence Welk and artists from his musical group. Chucko the Clown is scheduled to be there, as is the Cathedral Chapel Boys Choir, perennial favorites of the Christmas party.
The highlight of course, will be the arrival of Santa Claus (Jimmy McGarrigle) with gifts for all the children. The youngsters will be served ice cream and candy.
Proceeds will go to the Cardinal's Christmas Giving Program to provide a happier Christmas for large families not receiving care from other sources. Last year that included 9488 children and 3806 adults living in Los Angeles, Orange, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties.
In addition, funds were given to the Little Sisters of the Poor to assist their Christmas activities.
The Cardinal's committee welcomes patrons and patronesses to assist their worthy and extensive program. Donations can be sent to the Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children, 855 S. Figueroa St., Los Angeles 17.
Those wishing to secure invitations may do so by calling Miss Catherine Honrath. Tickets also will be available at the entrance on the afternoon of the party.

Anniversary Dinner Dec. 3

The 20th anniversary dinner of the Communications Corps of the United States will be held on Saturday Dec. 3 in the Patriotic Hall, 1816 S. Figueroa in Los Angeles at 6:30 p.m.
Major Mabel E. Patton, commanding officer, will be in charge.
Officers will have as their guests, persons with whom their activities are comparable and with whom they work in both the Armed Forces and in civilian life.
Citations and merits, will be awarded. Members are asked to bring their husbands and friends. Reservations may be made by calling the office.

Club Party

An unusual dimming party in the Torrance Woman's club fall series was the one hosted by Mrs. Harold Hayes on Nov. 17 at the home of Mrs. Dean Sears.
Guests were invited to arrive at 10 a.m. with their needles and thread to make aprons for the club's Christmas bazaar on Nov. 30.
A luncheon was served at 1 o'clock to Mes. Henry Heinlein, Leroy Pulliam, Irwin Kasten, Richard Floyd and D.L. Sears.
Recent party hosts and diners from Torrance included Messrs. and Meses. James A. Boldt, John A. Calkins, John Thorsby, Philip Weinstein, C. L. Porter, Robert West, George T. Denney and Howard Stittsworth.
