Kennedy is a clerk in Headquarters Battery, 43rd Artillery, at Wahoo. He entered the Army in July, 1959, and completed basic combat training at Fort Ord. (U.S. Army Photo)

pleted recruit training Nov. 10 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

The 11-week course included instruction in all basic military subjects and infantry weapons.

Ronald A. Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Flynn of 21043 S. Shearer Ave., was graduated from recruit training Nov. 18 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

PFC Jesse R. Amado Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Amado, 2744 W. 174th St., won second place in the animals and pets class, black and white division category of the All-Army photography contest held at Fort Jay, N.Y., Nov. 10.

The contest, judged by national photo experts, was entered by Army men stationed around the world. The winners will advance to the 9th annual interservice photography contest.

Amado is assigned as a supply clerk in Company B of the 35th Engineer Battalion at Fort Lewis, Wash. He entered the Army in July 1959 and received basic combat training at Fort Ord, Calif. The 24-year-old soldier is a 1955 graduate of Torrance High School and a 1959 graduate of El Camino Junior College.

Aviation Officer Candidate

James H. Driver, son of Mrs. Frances H. Driver of 1539 W. Carson, and husband of the former Miss Margaret Odle of St. Louis, Mo., is undergoing training as a naval air observer at the Naval School of Pre-

Flight, Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. The primary mission of pre-flight is indoctrination. The 16 weeks of training include leadership, aviation science, navigation, and other technical courses preparing students for further specialized training. Pfc Billie F. Milam, son of Clyde E. Milam, 1453 W. 214th St., Torrance, recently achieved recognition as a top Army marksman by qualifying for the expert marksmanship badge during range firing with the M-1 rifle in Germany. Milam, a driver in the 544th Transportation Company of the 8th Infantry Division's 30th Transportation Battalion in Baumholder, entered the Army in August 1958 and arrived overseas in April 1960. The 19-year-old soldier attended Narbonne Lomita High School.
