

Ladies Guild Plans Party

Ladies Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will meet Dec. 14 at 12 noon for a Christmas pot luck luncheon at the guild hall, Marcelina and Arlington. Dessert will be served by the board members. A business meeting will be conducted at 2 p.m. by Mrs. Katherine Lane, president.

There will be a money tree and all proceeds will go to the new Sunday school building fund.

All members are urged to bring a guest to this meeting.

Burkes Hosts

Merriment of the holidays was evidenced at a festive dinner party given at the Pen and Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach recently by Mr. and Mrs. James S. Burke of Torrance, whose guests included Mrs. Joseph Luviano of Lomita and Mrs. Irving L. Leonard of Torrance.

Orient Is Described For Chapter

November meeting of Gamma Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma was held at the home of Mrs. Janet Bolinger.

In keeping with the theme for study this year, "Understanding Cultures," three members talked about their trips to the Orient and showed slides taken there.

Mrs. Jane Rose and Mrs. Bolinger talked about Japan while Mrs. Hilma Jacobs spoke of her experiences in Hong Kong.

The three speakers also acted as hostesses for the evening and greeted the members dressed in kimonos bought in the Orient.

Lunch and decorations also carried out the Oriental theme. Members will enjoy a Christmas party on Dec. 11.

Job's Daughters Bethel Installation Saturday

Miss Jerry Yancey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Yancey, 23305 Huber Ave., will be installed as Honored Queen of the Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, in ceremonies at the Masonic Temple Saturday-evening. Miss Georgia Powell is the retiring queen. The public is invited to this 67th installation.

Brunch Party

Mrs. Albert Morton entertained at a brunch and bridge Wednesday at her home, 25909 Matfield Drive.

In the bridge games following brunch, the high score was held by Mrs. Morton and second high by Mrs. Eric Borner.

Mrs. Morton's guests were Mmes. Robert Powers, Ernest Baumgardner, Ellis Myer, Beryl Gutridge, Tony Santaella, Jack Hartel, and Eric Borner.

Mrs. Gutridge will be the club's hostess next week.

B'nai B'rith Hears Talk

A regular meeting of the Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women was held last Monday night at Temple Beth Torah in Gardena. Mrs. Lee Butner, a well-known speaker in the field of adult education talked on the role of the parent in Religious Education.

Tuesday, Dec. 6, a number of the women from the chapter participated in a joint endeavor with the Hollypark B'nai B'rith Men's Lodge. The group traveled to the Long Beach Veteran's Hospital to entertain the men with games. The men's lodge donates $50 bi-monthly to support this activity.

Mrs. Ralph Miller and Mrs. Stanley Cooper, co-chairmen of the rummage sale held on Wednesday, Nov. 30, describe their money-raising affair as a large success.

New members of the Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women include Mrs. Morton Leitner of Torrance, Mrs. Howard Levitt and Mrs. Karl Shanks of Gardena.

Church Women Will Install

United Church Women will hold their installation of officers tomorrow at the First Christian Church in Torrance. A luncheon will be served at noon by the host church. A small donation will be charged.

Mrs. Clara Prebble of the Walteria Community Methodist Church will conduct the business meeting and installation. Mrs. C. J. Goad and Mrs. J. W. Cleveland are vice presidents.

Cafe Diners

Among the guests recently noted at the Polynesian Restaurant were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass of Torrance, Mrs. Jona Ehrlich of Hawthorne, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Wolf of Hawthorne and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pollit of Torrance.

Old Fashion Yule Party Is Planned

In an old fashion Christmas setting, designed and decorated by Mrs. Dale Sutton, St. Catherine Labourer Council of Catholic Women, will hold its annual Christmas party in the parish hall, on Thursday Dec. 15 at 8 p.m.

A musical program entitled "Going Up" will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Walter Hanf.

As in past years, the Council is collecting gifts for children to send to the Glenmary Home Missions in Russellville, Ky., rather than exchange gifts among themselves.

Mrs. George Molinelli is gift chairman.

Other committee members assisting the event chairman, Mrs. I. J. Mosbrucker, will be Mrs. Charles Gibbon, refreshments; Mrs. Louis Corso, hostesses; Mrs. William LaTendresse, favors; and Mrs. Kent Williams and Mrs. William Hale, program.

Y-Wives Club Announces New Schedule

Torrance Y-Wives will begin their new year of activities on Jan. 3 when their speaker will be Lisa Eichel, owner of a health food store in Hermosa and a nutrition consultant service. Her topic will be "Keeping Fit."

The speaker has taught a course, "Health In Our City Schools" under the Redondo Adult Education program.

The last meeting for 1960 for the Y-Wives will be held Dec. 13.

The Tuesday 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. meetings will resume at the Y, 2320 Carson, on Jan. 3. Child care is provided. An hour of exercises and dance is followed by a program. The program for January is: Jan. 3, Lisa Eichel; Jan. 10, general business meeting; Jan. 17, Jane Reed will speak on millinery; Jan. 28, party for Y-Wives and their husbands; and Jan. 31, a trip through a rug cleaning plant.
