Auxiliary Enjoys Festive Christmas Dinner Party

Inside the wall of Ulaband Hall in San Pedro the Christmas Spirit prevailed when the members of Harbor View Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Assn. Unit 217, and its branch members enjoyed their annual turkey dinner.

Traditional Christmas figures and scenes filled many spaces about the social hall. Prettily wrapped gifts were around the tree, and the festively laden tables were decorated with poinsettias, pyracantha, cedar and pine.

After dinner everyone gathered around the tree for the gift exchange, which was arranged by Tava Miekley. The unit presented the branch with a gift, a leather brief case for the secretary, Emily Coffield was in charge of the dinner

Note Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Speck, 1324 Acacia who were celebrating their 33rd wedding anniversary were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Hill for dinner at the Polynesian last Thursday evening.

The Specks were also entertained at dinner Saturday evening by their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean, 22034 Ladeene Ave.

party. Assisting were Mmes. Elvis Patterson, Earl Rush, Joel Kellom, Harry Setzer, Harry Fralich, Tava Miekley, and Patty Pesce.

A short business meeting followed the dinner party with Mrs. William Davis, presiding. The Unit voted Christmas donations to Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation for the Mentally Retarded, Salvation Army, and the Community Chest.

A report from Mrs. Patterson on "Operation Handclasp" was given. Mrs. Miekley reported she collected 176 books for the Veterans Hospital in Long Beach, and 30 lbs. of white goods for the Cancer Society. Mrs. Rush reported on her project.

Cocktail Party

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gardner entertained a group of friends at cocktails last evening at their home, 3222 Sonoma St., prior to the Junior Woman's club Christmas dinner dance at the Palms restaurant.

The Gardners' guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Kenneth Boulter, Wade White, Robert Davis, Lee Clotworthy, and William Bennett.

Auxiliary Has Program For Parents

An Infanticipation program is held every third Tuesday at the South Bay District Hospital for prospective parents. The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 20, in the hospital cafeteria.

Mrs. S. L. Stentz, Redondo Beach, chairman, has announced the meeting is open to anyone interested. Mrs. Russell Williams, administrator for the hospital, will speak regarding expenses in connection with expectant parenthood. Mrs. Frederic Cannavella, supervisor of obstetrics talks on visiting hours and what to bring to the hospital.

Movies are shown of the many steps preparatory to going to the hospital and the procedure to be following in bathing and feeding the baby upon returning home.

Five door prizes are given during the meeting. Three meetings have been held to date which were well attended.

Mrs. Howard H. Harlan, Jr. of Palos Verdes Estates, attended the Maternity Tea Nov. 7, 1960, at which time she guessed the expected date of her infant as Nov. 20. Michael Kim was born on that date and Mrs. Harlan was presented a gift by the Auxiliary.

Hanukkah Party Set For Dec. 20

Temple Beth Torah's Sisterhood will hold its annual Hanukkah party on Tuesday evening, Dec. 20, at 8:30 p.m. with the traditional candle-lighting ceremony planned by Rabbi Henry E. Kraus and Mrs. Lewis Berkowitz, religious chairman.

The ceremony will be followed by a community sing and Hanukkah quiz under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Schwartz, program chairman. Sandwiches and pastries will be served by Mrs. Irving Demoff and Mrs. Jack Berris, hospital chairmen.

Hanukkah is also known as the "Festival of Lights." It recalls the story of the world's first heroes, under the leadership of the Maccabean family, who fought and died for freedom of worship.

Mrs. Heiry Shipin announces that Hanukkah decorations, books, candles, records, jewelry and other items may be purchased at the Temple Hanukkah Shop every Sunday morning.

Rabbi Henry E. Kraus and a committee will visit all the homes entered in the Temple's Hanukkah decorating contest. A prize will be presented to the best decorated.

Church Guilds Install New Officers For Year

The annual meeting of the combined guilds of St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church, Redondo, was held Wednesday at the parish school hall. The meeting was preceded by the installation of the new officers in the church.

Guest speakers for the evening were the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Daniel P. Collins, pastor, and Mrs. Herbert Grosswendt, spiritual program coordinator for the Guilds. Msgr.
