Walteria Club Names New Officers For 1961

New officers for the coming year were elected by the Walteria Business Women's Club at its annual Christmas party held Wednesday evening at the Scout House in Walteria. Mrs. Robert Waegner was named president for 1961. Serving with her will be Mrs. Clarke Cressey, vice president;

Mrs. Lillian Bailey, recording secretary; Mrs. Stan Watts, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Glen Maxwell, treasurer.

For their dessert holiday party, the tables were decorated with white branches to which silver and pink Christmas ball were attached. Highlight of the decorations was a ceramic Christmas tree made by Mrs. Herb Jackson. Mrs. Lillian Bailey was in charge of decorations.

The party for the club's adopted ward at Harbor General Hospital was held Monday evening. Mrs. Stan Watts is chairman of the hospital committee. Members visited the wards and presented the patients with gifts and a decorated Christmas tree.

Members attending the Christmas party were Mmes. Wilmet Labit, John Barton, Roy Bayer, Loring Bigelow, Al Doage, Robert Sleeth, O. C. Griffin, Virgil Hancock, Don Matthews, John Iwata, Herb Jackson, Emil Zirbes, B. F. Pendleton, Anthony Mack, Alvin Schneider, Maze Moton, Chris Sorenson and Elenore Thill.

Mrs. O. S. Larabee, president of the district, will preside over the business meeting and the president of the Palisades club, Mrs. O. Leonard Huddleston, will welcome members.

Assisting Mrs. Larabee will be Mrs. Karl E. Bishop, first vice president and dean of presidents; and Mrs. Ervin W. Graf, second vice president and dean of chairmen.

The meeting will be recessed for luncheon at 12:15 p.m. and reservations should be made by Jan. 3 by calling, on the north, Mrs. Alfred Swanson; or Mrs. A. M. Lindner, on the south side.

Holiday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mitchell, 4827 W. Kingspine Rd., Rolling Hills had as their dinner guests on Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Gensley of Calabasas and their son, Richard, who is home from the University of Colorado at Boulder for the holidays. After dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Chamberlain.

Doctor Will Be Speaker

Roger Nelson, M.D., will be the speaker at the third meeting in the Parentcraft series for expectant fathers and mothers at The American Institute of Family Relations, 5287 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, on Tuesday, Jan. 3, at 8 p.m. The topic for the evening will be "The Normal Infant," and Dr. Nelson will lead the discussion following the showing of two motion pictures. For further information please call or write to the Institute.

The last lecture in the Parentcraft series will be on Tuesday, Jan. 17 at 8 p.m. The subject will be "The Emotional Climate of the Family." After the showing of the motion picture Mary Jane Hungerford, Ph.D. will lead the discussion. A new series will begin Feb. 7.

Big Bear Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. William Tolson Jr. and daughter, Carol, Beech Ave., spent the Christmas holidays at a family party at the home of Mrs. Tolson's parents at Big Bear.

Juniors Bring Cheer to Elderly at Rest Home

A Christmas party was given at the Forstrom Rest Home, a home for the aged, Junior Woman's Club, Marina District, C.F.W.C. Mrs. Ann Forstrom, Director of the Rest Home at 2834-38 Pacific Coast Highway, and the residents, Mmes. Carrie Hergerber, Orena Dyer, Mammie Cardell, Tula Rojo, and the gentlemen, Abraham C. Forshay, Wesley Edwards, P. M. Peterson, Steve Molnar and George Gerling, thoroughly enjoyed the Christmas gaiety.

The party was held in the afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m., with eggnog punch, coffee and homemade Christmas cookies being served. There was carol singing and games and gifts to add a little spice. Children's institutions and patients in the wards of hospitals are often remembered by organizations as well as relatives, but the elderly citizens living in smaller homes often have no living relatives and find the holidays a particularly lonely time.

Representing the Juniors at the party were Mrs. Gerson Jacobson, philanthropy chairman, and Mmes. J. W. Galvin, C. L. Briner, Fred Smith, H. E. Borner, Roger Lockhart and Deloy Stromme.

Birthdays Celebrated

A gala birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson, 1322 Teri Ave., on Wednesday evening, Dec. 14, celebrated the birthdays of their two sons, Bobby, who was 9, and Billy, 5.

A hot dog supper was enjoyed, followed by games. The birthday cakes were served with other refreshments. The boys were entertained by a miniature chimp which belongs to their uncle, Tom Quaggin.

Mrs. Tolson was assisted by Carol Tolson, Lori Witt, and Cindy Lee Tolson. Birthday guests were Tommy and Jerry Witt, Rodney and Donnie Norris, Tim Bullock, Danny Miller, Greg Perkins, and Robbie Smith.

Holidays Celebrated By Alumnae

Alumnae of the Delta Sigma Chi sorority were entertained at its Christmas dinner and party at the home of Mrs. Art Pierce in Westchester.

Dinner was served at a table decorated in the holiday motif. At a gift exchange at the Christmas tree, secret pals were revealed.

The group then voted to donate to the New Horizons Center, a project of the San Fernando Valley Assn. for Retarded Children.

Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Piatt entertained at an open house Monday afternoon from 4 until 8 p.m. at their home, 21100 S. Harvard Blvd.

Cocktails were served, followed by a buffet from a table festive in Christmas decor.

Enjoying the affair with the Piatts were Mayor and Mrs. Albert Isen, Dr. and Mrs. William Davies, Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Carr of Anaheim, formerly of Torrance, Jack Brislin, Joe Lucas, Stanley Heiman, Lyle O'Hara, Kenneth Cunningham, Larry Sargent, Lyle Frekleton; Mrs. Margaret Barth and Mr. James H. Johnson.
