

Authority On 'Roses' Will Speak

At the first meeting in the new year the Los Angeles Bay Harbor District 2 of the California State Garden Clubs, Inc. will have as its speaker Mrs. Judith Hills-Packard of Los Angeles, consulting rosarian and a member of both the American Rose Society and the Pacific Rose Society.

Eminently qualified to speak on roses, Mrs. Hills-Packard has a test garden in which she grows roses for the hybridizers. At the present time she has 230 roses growing in her garden. She is a past president of both the Los Angeles Garden Club and the Hollywood Garden Club, and is a flower arranger and show judge in her own right.

The San Pedro Garden Club will act as hostess at this meeting, to be held in the Yugoslav Woman's Club House, 1903 S. Cabrillo Ave., San Pedro, at 10:30, Jan. 20.

Anniversary

The Pen & Quill in Manhattan Beach was the restaurant setting chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Frey of Torrance when they recently entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerriman of Inglewood, who were celebrating their 32nd wedding anniversary. Eight mutual friends comprised the informal party.

DAR Warns Against Communism

A meeting of the El Redondo Chapter, DAR was held Friday afternoon, Jan. 6, in the Community Room of the American Savings and Loan Assn., 205 So. Pacific Ave., Redondo Beach, with Mrs. Lester Hickman, Regent, presiding.

Following the business session, Mrs. Elise Young, National Defense Chairman of the chapter spoke on "Un-American Activities" and how prevalent they are becoming in our state. She suggested that parents pay more attention to what their children are being taught in the schools, what is being preached in the churches and what movies their children are seeing.

"Bring your children up to respect their great American heritage," she said, "and that will be one of the greatest helps in combating communism."

After Mrs. Young's talk, the members were entertained by an accomplished young pianist, Frances Shive, who played three selections.

Tea was served and Mmes. Joseph Gagnier, Bessie Smith, Winifred Park and Emma Bickford acted as hostesses.

Special guests were the bride's parents from Parker, her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Brian Hall of Anaheim; and the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zamrzla of Torrance.
