

Will Honor Past Prexys

Ladies Auxiliary of the Torrance Fire Department held its first meeting of the new year Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Reintsma, 916 Faysmith Ave. Mrs. George Blahnik, president, conducted the meeting.

It was reported that Mrs. Ronald Power, Mrs. Charles Brennen and Mrs. George Blahnik had picked up and delivered Christmas baskets donated by the employees of Sears, Roebuck & Co. to Rev. J. J. Penner of Harbor General Hospital. The fireladies added a check for $15.00 as their contribution.

Mrs. Richard Sprout, first vice president in charge of ways and means, announced the first of many interesting socials for the coming year will be a tea honoring the past presidents of the Auxiliary. Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, 2724 Arlington Ave., will hostess the affair to be held on Saturday Jan. 28, from 2 to 4 o'clock. Mrs. Chas. Reintsma, Mrs. Richard Sprout, Mrs. George Blahnik and Mrs. John Ferralio are in charge of arrangements.

After the drawing of the names for secret pals, the meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostess Mrs. Reintsma.

Mrs. John Agapito and Mrs. Charles Brennen were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Jay Nielsen and Mrs. Donald Holz as guests of the evening.

Members attending were: Mmes. George Blahnik, John Millard, Billy Stonecker, R. E. Moffitt, Richard Sprout, Milton Langum, John Ferralio, Sam Martin, Walter West and Charles Reintsma.

LOVE IN BLOOM . . . A courtship scene in the comedy "The Campbells Are Coming" which will be presented on Feb. 3 at the Torrance High school auditorium as a benefit for the local YMCA. Ma Brannigan, left, played by Mrs. B. W. Roberts, listens intently to a proposal of marriage from Cyrus Scudder played by Alan Moore.

Spanish Dinner

Missionary Society of the South Bay Church of God will serve a Spanish dinner to the public on Friday evening, Jan. 27, at the church, 17661 Yukon Ave. Anyone wishing to make reservations may call Mrs. Leroy Forsythe or the church.

Card Party

Comedy Production Will Benefit YMCA

The comedy farce "The Campbells are Coming," which was presented by the drama section of the Torrance Woman's club, Mrs. Godfrey Nelson, chairman, will be repeated on Feb. 3 at the Torrance High School auditorium at 8 p.m. The repeat performance will benefit the Torrance YMCA.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the cast, from any member of the YMCA, or at the door on the evening of the play.

The cast includes local men and women, many of whom are members of the club's drama section.

Mrs. Emma Roberts, well known for her comedy characterizations, will again play the role of "Ma Brannigan." Betty Sandstrom will appear in the role of the hillbilly servant, Catalpa Tapp. Betty Brannigan, Ma's youngest granddaughter, will be played by Terri Jacobsen, a member of the Junior Woman's club and Dick Brannigan, her brother, will be played by Noel Shire, who has appeared in many plays in this area. Shire studied at the Pasadena Playhouse last summer and is at present a student at El Camino college.

Bob Johnson will play the real hillbilly role as Catalpa's father, Bildad Tapp. He was a member of the the Accent Theatre group here and appeared in "Stalag 17" and "The Crucible."

Alan Moore, teacher at South High school, will have the part of Cyrus Scudder, who wants to marry Ma. Mr. Moore has had theatre experience in directing as well as acting. He was a charter member of the Little Theatre in Manitoba, Canada, before coming to California.

Marti Goff, a newcomer with the drama section, will play the part of Kaye Brannigan, Ma's eldest granddaughter.

Richard Greenlaw will have the part of Kingstron Campbell, Kaye's fiance and his mother, Mrs. Augusta Campbell, will be played by Mrs. Godfrey Nelson, director. Mrs. Nelson has directed several one and three act plays and was a member of the Accent Theatre in Torrance and the Curtain Timers in Massachusetts, her former home.

Foreign Students Are Speakers at Club Meet

American Field Service foreign exchange students charmed, entertained and educated the members and guests of the Torrance Woman's Club when they met at the Clubhouse on Wednesday, Jan. 18.

The high school students described their native lands and the particular city they were from, and told something of the political, social and educational life of their countries.

Mrs. John Melville, International Affairs Chairman, introduced Brenda Memoli from Uruguay; Gabrielle Moretti from France; and Linea Hileman, North Torrance High School student, who has just returned from Zurich, Switzerland. Linea is the first student from Torrance, under AFS, who has attended school in a foreign country. Linea was enrolled in a girls' high school in Zurich from September to January, and enjoyed her semester there very much, although she did find the schedule strenuous. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Hileman, 17026 Yukon.

A pot-luck luncheon and business meeting preceded the program. Mrs. Roy Apsey, president, conducted the meeting with Mrs. W. L. Lucas giving the invocation and Mrs. Ervin Moudy leading the flag salute. Mrs. Apsey appointed the following members to serve on the Scholarship committee: Mrs. Mark Wright, chairman, and Mmes. R. E. Moffitt, W. L. Norman and C. K. Albright.

Mrs. W. C. Boswell announced that the local Heart Fund Sunday on Feb. 26 would be coordinated through the Torrance Woman's Club and asked for volunteer workers for this community project. Mrs. Boswell is the Area chairman for the Heart Fund drive.

Special guests of the club were Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, Junior president, Mrs. D. E. Moore, Junior - Senior director, and Mrs. John Chaudano, AFS. The next meeting of the club will be a Ham potluck dinner at 7 p.m. at the clubhouse on Feb. 1. Mrs. A. Z. England is the chairman for this annual family night dinner and program.

Obedience Club Enrolls New Members

South Bay Obedience Club enrolled 29 new class members Tuesday evening at a meeting in Walteria Park. Dogs of all sizes and breeds will be taught good manners by Roy Smith during the next 10 weeks.

Nine club members participated in a run-off for high scoring dog, while class members were being registered. Don Eid with Rico, German short hair, won the revolving trophy with a score of 199.

William Vannoy, vice president of the Southeast Obedience club of Lynwood, and popular with South Bay dog handlers, judged at Walteria Park for the third time. Assisting were Steward, Pat Toler and clerks Joann Finney and Shirley Nadel.

Coffee and doughnuts were served by Edna Smith, Shirley Nadel and Nancy Crawford were elected corresponding and recording secretaries at the recent club meeting.

Voter League Unit Meets Announced

League of Women Voters of the Palos Verdes Peninsula will hold unit meetings on Jan. 23, 24 and 25. This is the final set of units at which the topic of discussion will be local public recreation.

Unit three of the League will be studying recreation in the city of Torrance, while the other units will focus their attention on the cities of Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills and Rolling Hills Estates and the surrounding area.

Unit one will meet at 12:30 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. John F. Crowther, 26801 Rolling Hills Road, Rolling Hills. Unit two will meet at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John Hummer, 2525 Via La Selva, Palos Verdes Estates.

Unit three, which is the Torrance unit of the Peninsula League meets at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Allen Curtis, 206 Calle de Arboles in Hollywood Riviera.

Unit four will meet Wednesday at 9:45 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Thomas Kenney, 2304 Via Pinalte, Palos Verdes Estates, and Unit five, Wednesday, 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W.M. Todd, 5530 Bayridge Road, Palos Verdes Estates.

The League of Women Voters promotes political responsibility through informed and active participation in government. Membership in the League is open to all women of voting age in the Torrance area.

Job's Daughters Install In Impressive Rituals

Jerry Yancey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Yancey was installed as Honored Queen of Job's Daughters of Torrance as its 67th semi-annual installation on Dec. 10. The impressive ceremonies carrying out the theme "Our Life in Christ" were held at the Masonic Temple before a capacity audience. The theme was carried out by a large white styrofoam cross trimmed with red flowers.

Arthur Newell, past associate Guardian of Bethel 57 presided as master of ceremonies.

Leonard Babcock, past master of Torrance Masonic Lodge and Associate guardian of the Bethel gave the invocation and the benediction.

Miss Georgia Powell, retiring Honored Queen served as installing officer.

Installed to serve with Queen Jerry, were Patty Woodman, Senior Princess; Judie Sherwood, Junior Princess; Patti Fowler, guide; and Carole Woodman, marshal. Assisting Miss Pawell with the installation were Jackie Scherer, Bev Orend, Bonnie Sciarretta, Linda Simpson, Sharon Neely, Kay Smith and Jeanette Wright, past honored queens. Miss Yancey's father presented the queen's gavel and Diane DeWitt, a family friend, presented her with her sounding block.

Miss Sue Larson was soloist and was accompanied by Miss Marilyn Holcomb.

Hostesses were Barbara Campbell, Karen Henderson, Donna Thistle, serving as ushers were Steve Parker, Mike Linderman, and Robert Pulliam, Senior Councilor of Torrance De Molay.

The installation was closed by Mrs. Barbara Polliar, guardian and Mrs. Babcock, associate guardian.

The Mothers club and Guardian Council served refreshments and acted as chaperones for the reception and dance.

Junior Club Lines Up Events for New Year

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, got off to a flying start at the January business meeting with many plans for a busy new year ahead. The members voted $120 to help support the adopted Indian child for another year. Arrangements are being completed for the Initiation Banquet for the provisional members on Jan. 25, and a fashion show and luncheon to be produced jointly with the Torrance Woman's Club on March 4.

Approval was given for an appropriation of $50, half of a one-hundred dollar Art Scholarship to be awarded in conjunction with the Senior Woman's Club. This art scholarship is open to all graduate seniors of Torrance schools. The deadline will be Feb. 15. Mrs. Richard Dorothy, Art

Chairman, announced the "Art Nouveau" showing at the Los Angeles County Museum, and invited all to attend.

Tickets are on sale for the Helms Bakery Tour to be held Jan. 26. A tour of the bakery and a delicious lunch are being planned.

Mrs. Charles Bennett announced details of the Vogue Sewing Contest. Contestants are to make what they consider an ideal costume for a club woman, using a Vogue Pattern. The outfit must have been made between Oct., 1960, and Feb. 22, 1961. There will be separate awards on club, district and state levels. On the national level, the winner will receive a three-week trip to Europe or $1500.

The Torrance Juniors will sponsor Intermediate Troop 2393, Brownie Troop 1591 and Brownie Troop 240.
