

Golf Club Officers To Plan Year at Luncheon

Alondra Park Women's Golf Club officers abandoned the fairways to gather for luncheon at the home of the 1961 president, Mrs. Carl Benson, of Hollywood Riviera on Wednesday, Jan. 25.

The officers and committees planned the tournaments and special Invitational for the Club, now entering its eleventh year.

The other elected cabinet members are Mmes. Mel Wilbur, Lawndale, Tournament chairman; Rex Ward, El Segundo, Handicap chairman; Freeman Battershell, Torrance, secretary; and Ed Hughes, Gardena, treasurer. The Board of Directors consists of Mmes. Richard Murphy, Hermosa Beach; Bob Ackerman, Torrance; Kenneth Edwards, Hermosa Beach, program; and Dale Van Hook, El Segundo, past president and advisor.

The Club will field two golf teams for play against other clubs this spring which will be captained by Mrs. Van Hook and Mrs. James Judge of Inglewood.

Completing the committees are Mmes. Lou Martin, Redondo Beach, hospitality; Sydney Pattison, Manhattan Beach, publicity; Bob Benson, Riviera, decorations; Don Fry, Lawndale, historian; Richard Robertson, Riviera, refreshments; James Fouldes, El Segundo, cards; and Dick Thorsoa, Inglewood, handicap.

Rules chairman will be Mrs. Alerd Disrud, Torrance, assisted by Mmes. Chuck Overhulser, Hermosa Beach, and Jim McMillan, Redondo Beach.

The Ringer Tournament is currently under way with trophies to be awarded to low gross and three places in low net. The Ringer will be completed by the end of February.
