

Charm Class Offered at Y

Torrance YWCA is offering a Charm Class for girls in the 6th, 7th and 8th grades. The program will consist of posture and walking, hair, skin and make-up care, personal cleanliness, clothes, and social grace. After six weeks of classes, the members will put on a fashion show and tea for the girls parents. Any girls or Scout troops interested may call the YWCA. The class will begin Jan. 26 at 4 p.m.

From San Diego

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Russell, 2726 Gramercy Ave., entertained as their guests for the weekend, Mrs. Russell's cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Simms of San Diego.

prospective parents were established once a month to acquaint interested parties in the necessary procedures for baby's arrival. The Pediatrics ward was adopted as a special project for the Auxiliary, which is hoped will make it equal to none.

A library was established for both adults and children, and is available each day to patients through a portable cart service. This type of service was also made available for gift items from the gift shop, which opened with the hospital and as of the end of the year had netted a profit of $1500.

Handmade pinkie puppets were donated to all children under 12 and averaged 33 a month.

Many volunteer hours both inside and outside the hospital have contributed to the success of the hospital. For patients enjoyment and listening pleasure music was donated by the Auxiliary.

JOSEPHINE WHITE . . . February Bride

White-Staff Wedding Set For Feb. 11

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert White, 1716 Date Ave. are today announcing the wedding plans of their daughter, Josephine, and William E. Staff.

The couple will be married at 9 a.m., Feb. 11, at the Nativity Catholic Church in Torrance.

The bride-elect was graduated from St. Michael's High school in Los Angeles in 1959. She attended Flavo Beauty college and is employed at a local beauty salon.

The future bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Staff, 809 Felbar Ave., was graduated from Torrance High school in 1958. He served with the United States Navy and is now employed by Addressograph-Multigraph Co. in Los Angeles.

Sorority In Study Of Orient

A continued study of the Orient was pursued. Mrs. Helen James reported on "China of Today under Communism".

Mrs. James said that the Chinese tradition, respect for the family, has been eliminated, especially in the country area. The cities have strongly resisted Communism. She also pointed out that husbands, wives and children are being separated so that they may be assigned to work in distant areas.

Lois Driffle gave a review of many books on Japan, Japanese children and Japanese Fairy Tales.

Mrs. Jane Rose discussed the various types of music and entertainment in Japan today. Members listened to two recorded selections from the Takarazuka Dance theatre.

The next meeting will feature Dr. Muriel Duncan who will give first hand experiences from her travels in China.

Hobbyists Dinner Meet

Harbor Bird Hobbyists, a newly organized club in the area for the study and raising of birds, held its first annual dinner meeting on Saturday evening at a Chinese restaurant in San Pedro.

Attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Ted McDaniel, William Hart, John Tresler, Ralph Knox, Robert Hilborn, Earl Rose, Anker Larson, Don Arms and daughters, Mr. Elliott Morgan and Herbert Melvin, and Miss Carol McDaniel.

Anyone interested in joining the group may call Mrs. Ted McDaniel, president, at 2477 W. 251st, Lomita. The group meets on the last Sunday of each month.

Henry Glenns Honored On 45th Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glenn, 16621 Cerise Ave., Torrance, who celebrated their forty-fifth wedding anniversary on Jan. 12, were honored at a party Saturday night, Jan. 14.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Boyko, the scene of the party, was beautifully decorated in white, silver and sapphire. The wedding bell theme was carried out. A buffet supper was served at midnight from a table centered with a double bell cake, flanked by white tapers, and miniature bride and bridegroom.

As a memento of the occasion each guest wore a bell with a sapphire clapper.

The honorees were presented with silver and sapphire jewelry by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glenn were married in Braddock, Pa., in 1916. When they moved to California in 1927, they settled in Los Angeles where they went into the grocery business. Upon retirement, they moved to Torrance, where they now reside with a daughter, Helen Donohoe and two grandchildren in Los Alamitos.

dren, Marianne and Francis.

Mrs. Glenn is an active member of St. Catherine Labourer Church of the Mother's Club, Drill Team of Court Ave Maria, the Ladies Catholic Benevolent Assn., Membership chairman of North Torrance Civic Assn., and has worked yearly on Torrance's Rose Parade float.

Congratulating the couple at the party were Mr. and Mrs. M. Le Melle of Downey, Mr. and Mrs. P. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lenassi, Mr. and Mrs. J. Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hinkel, and Ida Hechinger, all of Torrance. Surprise guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. Rowley, former neighbors, now residing in Los Alamitos.
