J. W. Harris, Bride Now At Home Here

The wedding of Mrs. Lenore B. Loller, formerly of Longwood, Kennett Square, Pa. and Joseph William Harris, 2607 W. 178th St., Torrance was solemnized at the First Baptist Church in Torrance on Saturday, Jan. 14.

The Rev. Robert Dehn, assistant pastor, conducted the vow exchange and the church organist played "Because" and "O Promise Me."

Ralph B. Loller of Inglewood gave his mother in marriage. She wore a nylon lace gown trimmed with rhinestones with white accessories. Her corsage was made of three white orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shreve attended the couple as matron of honor and best man. Mrs. Shreve wore pink lace over satin and her corsage was of pink camellias.

A reception for the 85 guests was held at the church social hall. A wedding cake decorated with white wedding bells and lilies of the valley was served with punch and coffee and mints.

The couple spent a honeymoon in Palm Springs and are now at home at 2607 W. 178th St.

Juniors Initiate New Members, Fete Mothers

Sixteen young women were formally initiated into the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina District, CFWC, following a banquet held at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia, Torrance, on the evening of Jan. 25. The ceremony was the climax of months of effort on the part of the provisionals who have proved themselves worthy in every way to become full fledged members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club.

The initiation ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, president, Mrs. C. L. Briner, chairman, Mrs. John Stokley and Mrs. R. E. Shaw, co-ordinator. Mrs. Clotworthy told the provisionals they brought six gifts to the club, their Time, Talents, Friendship, Faith, Loyalty and Wisdom. As each gift was named, a candle symbolizing the attribute was lit. As her name was called each received a taper which she in turn lit from the center candle. The club pledge was recited by all and was followed by the Junior Chorus who sang "It Is Better to Light One Little Candle."

A highlight of the evening was the speech entitled "Integrating the Foreign Born Into American Life" given by Mrs. Karma M. Gulliver, who is a lecturer and teacher. She gave a most interesting talk on her experiences in teaching immigrants. Many come to the country without knowing a word of the language and must be taught enough English to buy food, keep a job, and drive a car. Mrs. Gulliver's classes lay the ground work for future classes in citizenship and hard work of these people to overcome all obstacles.

Carrying out a cruise theme, a large ship model was centered on the main table and each program was decorated with a ship in full sail.

Relatives Here

Mrs. Flora Owens, 2013 Cabrillo Ave., had as her guests Thursday relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Freudenvoll of Rochester, New York. The easterners are spending two months in Riverside. The threesome plans to visit the places of interest in the Southland during their visit in California.

The whole decor was carried out in green and yellow, the Junior Woman's Club colors.

Mrs. Roy J. Apsey, president of the Torrance Woman's Club, Mmes. R. E. Shaw and Rufus Sandstrom and mothers of the members were honored guests.

The new members are: Mmes. Harold Brunner, Donald French, William Gross, George Hudak, Jerry Johnson, Roger Lockhart, Duane Piere, Horace Roberts, Robert St. Amand, Richard Sylvester, Wendell Thompson, Robert Vroman and Deloy Stromme. Unable to be present for the ceremony were Mmes. Ronald Forrestal, T. A. Parsons and Fred Smith.
