PTA The Torrance Council Way

By Mrs. Kenneth Edwins

MADISON

"Viewing the Future Through Reading" was the theme of a recent Madison PTA meeting. Mrs. Margaret Denmarsh, Curriculum Consultant for the Torrance Unified School District, made a presentation using the McKee reading symbols. The inspirational message was given by Mrs. Catherine Baker, 7th grade teacher at Madison, and the "Chirping Bluebirds," led by Mrs. Paul K. Sander were in charge of the Flag Salute.

MADRONA

"Treasures We Have Found" will be the theme of the Madrona PTA's Founder's Day meeting, which will be held on February 9th in the school cafeteria, 7:30 p.m. Entertainment for the evening will include a mini-opera entitled "Harmony on Founder's Day." The cast will be made up of PTA board members. Two Honorary Life Memberships will be presented at this time. A complete tour of the Educational Materials Building made up the January meeting of the Madrona PTA. The tour was under the guidance of Mr. William Forrest, Madrona principal and the teachers of Madrona. Another feature of the January meeting was the inspirational song by the Howard Wood Mothersingers. The unit also voted to give $25 to the Torrance Scholarship fund.

HILLSIDE

"The Trapped Housewife" will be featured in a talk by Leonard Cole, M.D., for the Hillside PTA room mothers on Tuesday, Feb. 7. Dr. Cole, a clinical psychologist, is on the staff of the State Department of Mental Hygiene and also the San Pedro Mental Hygiene Clinic. The program is under the direction of Mrs. Fred Field. Mr. John Strom,

Hillside principal, and Mrs. Francis Davidson, PTA president, will be on hand to welcome all mothers at 9:15 a.m. in the Hillside cafeteria. Coffee will be served by Mrs. Roy Nilsson and Mrs. M. M. Rentchler.

LINCOLN

Founder's Day will be observed by the Lincoln PTA on February 9 in the school cafeteria, 7:30 p.m. "This is Your Life" will be featured and a well known person in the community will receive an Honorary Life Membership. Money from these memberships is used to provide a revolving fund to be loaned to qualified students who would be unable to continue their college education or vocational courses without financial assistance. Also featured will be Mrs. A. M. Haffenden, mezzo soprano. The Lincoln PTA will present a short Founder's Day skit. Child care will be provided.

CALLE MAYOR

Calle Mayor PTA will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the school. Mrs. Warren Boggs, program chairman, has announced a program on mental health. A skit, "The Case of the Missing Handshake" will be presented. In the cast are William Poser, Mrs. Joel Stanley, Mrs. David Smith and Miss Nancy Monk.

PTF Meeting Set Tuesday

Western Avenue Baptist School PTF will meet Tuesday, Feb. 7, at the school, 25226 S. Western Ave., Harbor City. Topic of the program is "Setting a Safe Example." A film "The Case of Officer Hallebrand" will be shown. Hostesses for the meeting will be the second grade room mothers.
