Msgr. McCarthy On Discussion Panel Tonight

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. McCarthy, pastor of Nativity Catholic Church of Torrance, will participate in a panel-discussion on "You and Your Tensions," a religious-psychological approach to the problem of "guilt and sin," tonight at 8 in Doheny Hall, Los Angeles. Others on the panel will include Rev. Peter Cikkic, chairman of the department of psychology at Loyola; Dr. John Schumaker of the Hacker Clinic; Dr. Jacques O'Brien, USC department of psychiatry; and Rev. Antoninus Wall, O. P., of Immaculate Heart College.

Study Group To Discuss Alcoholism

The second in a series of discussions under the title, "The Alcoholic Can Be Helped," will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 at the First Methodist Church, El Prado and Manuel, under the sponsorship of the Mission Study Group. The group will continue discussion of the study book, "Stumbling Block," written by Douglas Jackson. Mrs. Lois Balsley will interpret the Jellinek Chart on Alcohol Addiction, which is a summary of lectures delivered by E. M. Jellinek at the European Seminar on Alcoholism held in Copenhagen. An invitation has been extended by the sponsors to the general public for the Sunday evening program.

PLYMOUTH'S ON THE LEVEL

CURVE AFTER CURVE WITH TORSION BAR SUSPENSION
There's less lean on curves in Plymouth for '61. And Plymouth stops without the usual dipping. The Secret? Torsion bars with the front wheels. These soak up front wheel shocks in a way that is surer than old-fashioned coil springs used in other cars. Special wide-leaf springs in back give a solid, stable "feel." There is no way to describe Plymouth's ride. We urge you to visit your Plymouth-Valiant dealer's — take this one on the road. You could pay hundreds of dollars more for a car and still not get the smooth, level ride '61 Plymouth or Valiant will give you.
