

Entertain at Club Benefit

A Valentine motif was used when Mmes. R. C. Focha, Roy Apsey, Godfrey Nelson, C. M. Wheeler and Rufus-Sandstrom entertained at a dessert-bridge on Thursday afternoon at the Torrance Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

This party was another in the series of diminishing card parties for the philanthropic fund of the Torrance Woman's club.

A prize was given to the winner at each table, who were Mmes. C. A. Perkins, Dean Sears and E. J. Lenk in the bridge games; and Mrs. Violet Wilson and Mrs. E. G. Laughney in canasta; and Mrs. R. F. Shaw in Cootie.

Moose News

Child Care Committee of the Women of the Moose held its Valentine Party at the home of Mrs. Clyde Coble on Friday, Feb. 4.

Attending were Mmes. Douglas Dixon, William Griep, Arthur Witt, Jane Budin, E. F. Meyer, Ed Judd, Donald Atolinnien, Walter Witt, George Thomas, Regina Smith, Helen Benton, Elsie Jones, Florence Prince, Lora Judd and the hostesses.

A large red heart encircled by red and white carnations decorated the table.

Games were played with prizes going to Mmes. Regina Smith, Florence Prince, Douglas Dixon and Ed Judd.

Mrs. William Griep made corsages for each guest.

Betsy Ross Club To Meet Feb. 21

Betsy Ross club of the Torrance OES will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 21 at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

Charlotta Dolan, president, will conduct the business meeting at 10:30 a.m. Dessert will be furnished. All members are urged to attend.

Homemakers of Tomorrow Named in Local Schools

Named the 1961 Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow in Torrance High schools are Margie Ann Tillet, Bishop Montgomery; Barbara Lee Hevns, North High; Sharon Lucille Stevens, South; and Mary Hill, Torrance.

Having received the highest score in a written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating seniors in her school, each becomes a candidate for the state Homemaker of Tomorrow award which will be announced in March.

Each school Homemaker of Tomorrow will receive an award pin, manufactured by Jostens and representing the slogan, "Home is Where the Heart Is." The examination papers of school Homemakers of Tomorrow will be entered in competition to name the state's Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The $110,000 homemaking education program sponsored by General Mills offers a $1500 scholarship to the first ranking girl in each state and a $500 scholarship to the state's second ranking participant.

State Homemakers of Tomorrow and their faculty advisors receive an expense-paid educational tour to New York City, Colonial Williamsburg, Va., and Washington, D.C., April 8-13, the trip culminating in the announcement of the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow whose scholarship is increased to $5000.

Second, third and fourth ranking Homemakers of Tomorrow

Illinois Guests

Among the recent party hosts at The Pen & Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. O'Donnell of Torrance, who entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Howe, who are visiting here from Wilmette, Ill.

Party Given

Mrs. E. A. Miles and Mrs. Charles Ward entertained a group of friends Sunday evening as a benefit for the Torrance Woman's club.

The group gathered in the rumpus room at Mrs. Ward's home, 1625 Beech Ave., where they saw the colored slides made by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Miles on their three month tour of the Orient last fall.

After the picture showing, the hostesses served dessert and coffee.

Attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Gil Derouin, Harry Boynton, V. E. Benstead, H. J. Osborne, Paul Vonderahe, C. M. Crook, R. E. Moffitt.

Others were Mmes. E. L. Snodgrass, Mary McDonald, Lillian Dunhouse, Alma Smith, and Viola Shaw.

Coop Nursery Plans Social

Members and friends of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery School will enjoy a Box Lunch Social, at Higgins Patio, on February 18 at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Irwin Sitron is chairman of the event which will feature an evening of fun. Each couple will furnish a box lunch to be auctioned off. The party proceeds will enable the school to buy needed equipment.

The nursery school is directed by Mrs. Milton Barter and has a good program for children from 3-5 years four mornings per week. For information call Mrs. William Thompson or Mrs. Harold Anson.

Weekend Guests

Mrs. John W. Cox had as her weekend guests her sister, Mrs. Minnie Dunlop of Iowa and Dr. and Mrs. L. Koon of Harrisburg, Pa.

Candlelight Nuptials Unite Joyce Welter-John Hamm

Crenshaw Christian Church was the setting last Saturday evening for the 7:30 o'clock wedding ceremony uniting Miss Joyce Lee Welter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Welter, 18522 Dorman Ave. and John Stanley Hamm. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Alvin Hamm of Los Angeles.

Dr. Joseph Merle Applegate stood before a flower banked altar to officiate at the double ring candlelight vow exchange.

On the arm of her father, the bride approached the altar, wearing a gown of white taffeta and Chantilly lace. The lace torso had a scalloped necking adorned with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. Layers of Chantilly lace were down each side of the full taffeta skirt which fell into a cathedral train. A silk illusion fingertip veil cascaded from a tiny pearl crown. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids and carnations.

Miss Bonnie Kosey was maid of honor wearing purple satin with a matching hat. Her shower bouquet was of purple orchids and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Judith Horton, Lonna Carver, Maralee Travis, and Lana

Shore. All were gowned in purple satin and each carried a bouquet of white carnations sprayed with purple.

Roger Roth performed the duties of best man and ushers were Gene Welter, Tony Spartos, Dick Santo, Dave Marsden and Bobby Meckley.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the church. Miss Marcia Travis was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are now on a honeymoon in Las Vegas. Their new address will be 14618 S. Budlong Ave., Gardena.

The bride was graduated from North High school. She attended El Camino college and is now employed by Honeywell Corp.

Mr. Hamm attended the University of Southern Calif. He is a sales representative of the Lacial Co.

Corsetino-San Paolo Nuptials Read on Feb. 4

At high noon on Saturday, Feb. 4, Miss Elizabeth Jean Corsetino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corsetino, 23113 Dana Ave. walked down the aisle of the Nativity Catholic Church to exchange her wedding vows with Carlo San Paolo. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam

Corsetino, 5002 Marion Ave. The bride, who came to the altar on the arm of her father, wore a gown of white parchment satin studded with pearls and tiny rhinestones. A drop pearl tiara held the silk illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids atop a white Bible.

Miss Georginna Corsetino served as her sister's maid of honor. She wore red peau de soie and carried red and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Mariann Gallina, Neva Lanquas, Nancy Wileman, Sally Yates, Carol Ann Darr and Julie Cleserci. All were gowned in red peau de soie and each carried a bouquet of red and white carnations carrying out the Valentine theme.

Junior bridesmaids were twin sisters of the bride, Kathleen and Rayleen Corsetino. They also wore red peau de soie.

Little Jeannine Gallina, in a red frock, was the flower girl and the rings were carried by Tommy Gaglio.

Joe San Paolo stood as his brother's best man. Ushers were Frank Corsetino, Bud San Paolo, Dominick Cleserci, Fred Ruvelo, Pete Calagna, Jerry Price and Richard Quine.

Rev. Thomas Glynn officiated at the marriage and the nuptial mass.

After the wedding, 140 guests were entertained at a buffet luncheon at the Retail Clerks Hall in Harbor City. In the evening, 360 guests were invited to a buffet supper and dance. A 12 piece orchestra furnished the music.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Las Vegas.

Lecturer To Address Church Unit

Mrs. Henry M. Stephens, widow of a SAC Intelligence Officer, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Women's Mission society of the Torrance First Baptist Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Stephens, who lived in a village in Japan while her husband was on duty there, will tell the story of the Japanese people and their burden. She has also toured Europe, Mexico, and the Congo near Leopoldville.

Mrs. Stephens is a member of the Japanese Scholarship Fund of Riverside and of the Board of the United Church Women of Riverside. Recently she was invited to serve as a member of the Women's Planning Committee of the Japan International Christian University Foundation in New York.

Mrs. Perry Connott, president of the local society, will conduct a business meeting prior to introducing the speaker.

All interested women of the area are invited to hear Mrs. Stephens.

Refreshments will be served by the Business and Professional Circle.

Fete Mrs. Kulp

Mrs. Thomas Kulp, 2057 W. 230th St., was complimented at a housewarming given by her neighbors and friends.

A luncheon was served and Mrs. Kulp was presented with gifts.

Attending were Connie Boos, Shirlee Garrison, Hazel Phipps, Margie Smittie, Agnes Dehove, Hazel Stitt, Eva Smith, Cynthia Cox, Anna Sabasky, Olga Junior, Edna Hillier, Kay Harding, Lena DeWitt, Hazel Tichie, Jean Giles, and Lena Leben.

In Palm Springs

Mrs. Lee A. McCoy and Mrs. Mary Bishop spent four days last week in Palm Springs where they attended the Palm Springs Golf Classic.
