

Vogue Fabric Fashion Show Slated At May Co.

Thirty ensembles will be featured in the May Co. South Bay annual spring Vogue Fabric Fashion Show to be held on Monday, Feb. 27, in the auditorium at 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. The theme, "The Sound of Color" emphasizes the most colorful range of fabrics since hems were first raised. The collection includes silks, feather weight wools and novelty cottons.

"The Sound of Color" heralds a season of brilliance as seen in an orange wool costume, its sleeveless bodice in hot citrus silk stripes; and a bright hot pink tunic sports-wear costume lined in a green print. The paler tones are not ignored as shown by a sleeveless sheath and coat costume using silk stripes ranging from apricot to mustard, topped by the palest banana colored wool; a cool ice blue linen sheath and muted circus striped chiffon dance dress adds further proof of the versatility of the beautiful pastels.

The newest and most fashionable touch for this fabric fashion show will be large and elaborate buttons used on many garments. Flamboyant silk pom-poms, and passamenterie buttons are the most outstanding.

Americana plays a large part in sportswear this spring, and the flag colors are very much in evidence, as in a red loosely fitting overblouse and white pleated skirt, and a royal blue suit, lined in scarlet and bloused in white.

Fashions for every occasion and every figure is included in this fashion fabric show. All the garments and their fabrics are available in the fashion yardage departments enabling them to be exactly duplicated.

Mrs. Pauline Delano, Vogue's Fashion representative, will commentate the shows and will be available to answer inquiries on fashion and wardrobe planning.

HIGH FASHION . . . To be seen in the May Co. South Bay show Monday Feb. 27 in the auditorium will be this use of bold colors seen together in a tunic coated sportswear costume of hot pink sashed and lined in an acid green print. Pants and coat of Fuller sailton, print in Bates disciplined cotton.

Classmates In Reunion

A group of classmates, Narbonne High, winter of 1946, enjoyed a pot luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles Poh, the former Shirley Bowerman, 1713 W. 257th St.

Catching up on past and present news were Mrs. Gene Davis (Mona Bowerman), Ken Peters (Jean Johnson), Dale Wickstrom (Betty Bahler), Johnny Johnston (June McLaughlin), Robert Dearborn (Martha Swaffer), Ted Lukaski (Katherine Leopold), Joe Peskir (Delores Fernandez), Jerry Spellman (Mary Jane McDonald), Maurice McNeely (Lois Cessna), Elmer Martinez (Mary Cisneros), Thomas Carter (Nancy Durant).

This was the second get-together for some of the classmates. In January, several of them met at the home of Mrs. Robert Dearborn.

Monthly meetings are planned and other classmates in the area are invited to join the group.

Dianas Plan Program For Senior Club

The legend of the pitcher that was never empty no matter how much was poured from it has been lifted from the pages of mythology and is being re-enacted by a Fullerton woman, Mrs. Logan Wheatley, from whose collection of pitchers material aid is literally pouring forth in a seemingly never-ending supply toward the support of an orphanage of 110 children in Korea.

Mrs. Wheatley will entertain at the regular social meeting of the Redondo Beach Dianas, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership says Mrs. Paul Taylor, program chairman, Feb. 20 as the Junior Membership provides the program for the Seniors.

Also on the program are the Sweet Adelines, singing old and well loved songs.

Another highlight of the evening is the Vogue Sewing Contest with models from both the Redondo Woman's Club and the Dianas. The winners in this contest will compete in district, state and national competition, the grand prize is a trip to Europe.

Serving as hostesses are Mrs. M. Ray Hendershot, Thomas Lemley, Jack Slater, Theodore Kerwin, Eric Lindgren, Christian Drake, Gene McEver and Dale Milburn.

Coordinators, Mrs. A. I. Lukes, Mrs. Curt Richardson and Mrs. Ernest Butt as well as Mrs. Lee Hammond of the Woman's Club, Miss Marjorie Crandall of the Evening Division and Mrs. Milo Brunskill, Diana president, will be on hand to welcome guests.

BROADWAY SHOW

Women of the area enjoyed a preview of the new spring fashions at a champagne showing at the Broadway Del Amo. Many of the fashions, flown in from New York especially for the show, emphasized the new "freeway look" featuring skirts that move.

Trio Rebekahs Install New Slate of Officers

Trio Rebekah lodge 240 of Lomita, Harbor City, and Torrance installed new officers in ceremonies at the Charles King Youth Hall, 1409 W. 253 St., Wednesday, Jan. 25.

District Deputy President of District 84 and her staff conducted the installation.

Installed were Sally Weber, past noble grand; Hallie Vanbois, noble grand; Mae VanWee, vice grand; Edith Merriott, recording secretary; Hattie Schroeder, secretary; and Emma Schummer, treasurer.

Appointive officers installed were Edith Treveltham, conductor; Jennie Richina, warden; Elizabeth Yerton, chaplain; Florence Broad, musician; Anna Reynolds, color bearer; Bertha Fern and Eleanor Farquhar, supporters to the Noble Grand; Edith Bench and Corrine Anderson, supporters to the vice grand; Vesta Littell, inside guardian; Zella Butterfield, outside guardian; Ada Andersen and Anna Long, banner bearers to the past noble grand; Vena Johnson and Louise Bartholomew, banner bearers to chaplain; Ren Mote and Mayme Wells, altar bearers.

Dorothy Siebold was named goodfellow chairman; Violet Alvarez, publicity; Hattie Schroeder, degree mistress.

A large number of persons from neighboring lodges were on hand for the installation.

A reception followed during which Zella Butterfield and Edith Merriott sang two numbers.

Practice will be held at the next meeting Feb. 8.

Training Day At Y Feb. 21

Torrance YWCA will hold a Volunteer Training Day on Tuesday, Feb. 21 at 2320 W. Carson, from 9:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. Miss Evelyn M. Nossel, field staff, Western Region of the YWCA, will give a brief picture of structure, nationally and locally. Commitment responsibilities and relationships also are on the agenda.

The history and philosophy of the YWCA will be given by Mrs. Kenneth Clutter, local vice president of the board of directors.

A pot luck lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. with the course due to resume at 1:15 p.m.

Mrs. P. M. Crossman, volunteer trainer for Torrance, is planning an evening course.

Instructor Guest at Club Meet

Las Colinas Garden club met at the home of its president, Mrs. Gleason Branch on Calle de Arboles in Hollywood Riviera. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Clayton Taylor and Mrs. Gordon Palmer.

After refreshments and a business meeting, the members enjoyed a demonstration on flower arrangement by Miss Pat Shino of "Pat's Flower Arranging School" in Waverly. Members brought their own containers and fresh or dried flowers. Miss Tat assisted them with arrangements.

Members of Las Colinas are now selling tickets for their fashion show and luncheon to be held in March at La Venta Inn, Palos Verdes.

Proceeds from the show will be used to purchase shrubs for landscaping the hill on Vista Montana.
