He began the pre-study of organ at his mother's sewing machine at the age of seven—pumping the pedal and pulling out the drawers for stops. This led to his being one of the youngest organists (age 14) ever to receive the degree of A.L.C.M. (Associate of the London College of Music). He never did receive the cap and gown traditionally awarded with this degree because there was none available in his youthful size.

theaters in London's West End. This is equivalent to Broadway in New York City. Six years ago he moved to the Los Angeles area. Since then he has played many concert appearances

BOLLINGTON will appear twice at the Retail Clerks Hall

AL BOLLINGTON Plans Organ Recital

In Harbor City on March 6 under the sponsorship of Niki Music Studios, 3820 W. Sepulveda Blvd. A performance for teachers will be given at 2:30 p.m. and a pops concert will be offered at 8 p.m. Admission will be free, but tickets must be obtained from Niki Music Studios prior to the performances.

Following a number of years as a church organist and later as a pianist aboard Atlantic liners, he became a theater organist, appearing in famous
