Tartar track coach Joe Sarthou was pleased with the good marks particularly because of the soft condition of the track.

All the good times were particularly worthy of merit since they came so early in the year," Sarthou said.

A SHOW PRODUCER'S DREAM! But unfortunately, producing a show such as the Second International Sports, Vacation and Travel Show isn't that easy. Months of preparation must go into every detail. The Sports Spectacular runs March 17-26 in the Los Angeles Sports Arena, Coliseum and Swim Stadium.

Lakers Have Two Home Games to Go

Only two home games remain on the Los Angeles Laker regular season schedule, both against the "Big O," Oscar Robertson, and his Cincinnati Royals mates.

The Royals will be at the Sports Arena March 11 and March 12. Tipoff in the Saturday game is set for 11 a.m., the Sunday contest at 2:30. The morning game will be televised nationally but blacked out locally.

Robertson, three-year All American at the University of Cincinnati, has taken the National Basketball Association by storm in his rookie season. Time Magazine, in a cover story, called him "The Complete Player."

Laker fans, after watching Elg Baylor for a season, take issue with the story. But they, too, concede that Oscar has everything.

BILKO BLASTS FIVE

Bay League Champs Out of CIF Tilts

Inglewood, the undefeated champion of the Bay League, met her Waterloo Friday night 57-47 at the hands of El Monte in the second round of the CIF play-offs.

The tall men from Inglewood, scoring 13 points in the first quarter, saw the El Monte teagars go one better with 14 tallies. The second quarter was almost a repeat of the first except El Monte outdistanced the Centinels by two points 13-11. In an exceptionally close and hard fought game, the El Monte five widened the quarterly gap to four points 17-13 making the game score 44-37 after three quarters of play. Leading throughout the game the boys from El Monte beat back a Centinel onslaught during the fourth quarter 13-10.
