

WEST HIGH PLAN WINS CITATION

West High School's design has won a citation from the American Institute of Architects for Roy W. Donley & Assoc., architects, it was announced here yesterday.

The firm was one of six Southland designers to be singled out for the honors at the American Assn. of School Administrators conference in San Francisco last week.

In honoring the Donley design, the institute said: "Careful planning, creative design, and excellent site treatment have added a distinctive quality to a relatively low-cost school. Notable features of this plan are outdoor eating patio, indoor dining space, cubicles for individual study, comprehensive library facilities, faculty work space, and flexible assembly areas."

In addition to the six Southland firms cited, four from Northern California and 13 others throughout the nation were honored.

College Gives 130 Pints of Blood Monday

Students and employees of El Camino College contributed a total of 130 pints of blood in the annual Bloodmobile drive on campus Monday. Homer Toddy, faculty advisor of the project, announced yesterday.

"The total surpassed last year's mark by 41 pints," the instructor stated, noting that only six persons were rejected for reasons of health or other factors.

In competition sponsored among campus organizations, the Newman Club was first, contributing a total of 16 pints. Not entered competitively, the faculty was a runner-up with 14. Classified college personnel added 7 pints to the total.

Phi Sigma Upsilon fraternity was second among student groups with 11. Following were Interscholarship Christian Fellowship, 6; Lambda Delta Sigma, 6; Vets Club, 6; Circle K, 5; Chi Theta Chi sorority 4; Gamma Epsilon, Tri Phi and the War-whoop, 2 each, and Delta Sigma Chi and the Band, 1 each.

Other contributions were made by independent students. Toddy praised the work of Gary Smith, student chairman of the event and his committee consisting of Rel James and Sam Skoop, sign-ups; Mary McCoy committee secretary and Nancy Wilkie, publicity.

Three Local Men Finish Law Academy

Three Torrance men have completed an intensive 16-week basic law enforcement training program at the Los Angeles County Sheriff's academy, it was announced yesterday by Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess.

Members of the Torrance police department were David E. Williams and Gerald D. Garver. William E. Angione will join the Sheriff's department.

The cadet program presented at the academy is nationally recognized as one of the most comprehensive and highly developed courses of instruction and evaluation for training law enforcement personnel.

Square Links Plan Dance For St. Pat

The Square Links, square dance club, is planning at St. Pat's dance Sunday, March 12, with pot luck at 5:30 p.m., dancing 6:30-9:30 with Hoppy Hopkins as caller.

An invitation is extended to all dancers in the area to attend, as an evening of fun has been planned by the president, George Ingersoll.

The Square Links dance at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave., Torrance.
