City's Teachers to Visit Area Business, Industries March 17

More than 1000 Torrance teachers will visit 67 Torrance businesses and industries on Friday, March 17, as part of the Business-Industry-Education program.

Sponsored by the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, the program enables Torrance teachers to see private enterprise in action and to learn how it contributes to American development. In alternate years, the businessmen visit local schools to learn of their operation.

CLASSES will not be held on that day. Teachers will assemble at the South High School gymnasium at 9 a.m. to hear a keynote address by Dr. Stuart Marsee, president of El Camino College. Also taking part in opening ceremonies will be William Shawger, Chamber of Commerce president; Mayor Albert Isen, and School Superintendent J. H. Hull. Invocation will be by the Rev. Michael McNulty, while the benediction will be given by the Rev. William Schatz.

Teachers will spend the day at various businesses, learning about operations. Firms taking part will be:

AMERICAN Standard, Bank of America, Bethlehem Steel, Broadway Del Amo, Bowl-O-Drome, Budget Finance Plan, California Bank, California Rubber Products, Carma Mfg. Co., Certi-Bond City of Torrance, Coleman Engineering, Columbia-Geneva Division of U.S. Steel.

Opening Dates Listed for 5 Craft Classes

Five new craft classes for children and adults will start during the next week under auspices of the Torrance Recreation Department, according to Erika Muhl, head of the Arts and Crafts Center at 22730 Lupine Dr.

Being offered at the center for the first time are classes in cloissone techniques. The groups will explore inlay methods for copper and glass in sessions at 9:30 a.m. Mondays and 8:30 p.m. Wednesdays, starting March 13 and 15.

An "Easter bunny club" for youngsters will meet Saturdays at 9:30 a.m., starting March 11. A new puppetry class for children begins also on March 11, at 9:30 p.m.

Mosaics for beginners will convene at 7:15 p.m. Wednesdays, starting March 15, while an advanced class will meet Fridays at 9:30 a.m., effective March 10.

Persons interested in any of the classes are asked to register no later than Friday, March 10, at the Recreation Department headquarters, 1511 Cravens Ave., where full information is available on class fees, material costs, and prerequisites.

TEAC to Get Industrial Arts Program

The industrial arts program in Torrance Schools will be discussed at the Monday, March 13, meeting of the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee at noon in the Masonic Hall, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

Principal Richard Welte, Carr Elementary School, will be chairman, with Richard Bullington, Torrance High, and Myron Curtis, Newton, explaining the type of shop instruction given Torrance boys.

The Parkway Primary Chorus, directed by Mrs. Grace Faust, will present several numbers. Assistant Superintendent S. E. Waldrip will present a school construction report.

Local Teachers To Demonstrate Skills at Meet

Torrance teachers will demonstrate techniques of teaching various subjects and grade levels at a Good Teaching Conference to be held on Saturday, April 8, according to Willard G. Andreasen, president of the Torrance Education Assn.

The teachers association, in cooperation with the school district, will sponsor the conference to allow teachers to compare notes on teaching methods and to watch some techniques in action. The meeting will be held at South High School and Calle Mayor Elementary School.

Dr. Irving Melbo, dean of the University of Southern California School of Education, will deliver a keynote address on the theme, "The Growing
