

A VARIETY OF STYLES . . . When the Anza PTA holds its regular meeting Tuesday evening, new spring fashions made by the models will be shown. Here Susie Sullivan and Debbie Wray model their creations for Mmes. Richard Wray, M. K. Sullivan and William Rosenberry in preparation for the event.

Fashion Parade Slated For Anza PTA Meeting

Anza PTA is anticipating a gala evening March 22 when they present "USS Anza Goes Overboard with Fashions" in accordance with their theme for the year. The fashions presented are being made by the models. A variety of clothes will be shown from nightwear to cocktail gowns with a special accent on ensembles. Over thirty models will participate in the show, ranging from toddlers to mothers. A surprise comedy of fashions is also on the program.

Voter League In Study of Economics

The units of the League of Women Voters of the Palos Verdes Peninsula which meet this week will continue their study of Economic Policy.

Mrs. Lloyd Money, Torrance, Economic Policy chairman, has announced there will be discussion on balance of payments and economic and technical aid to underdeveloped countries. This discussion will encompass the questions, "How much aid is enough?" and "Can we afford it?"

Meetings are Monday noon (sack lunch) at the home of Mrs. John Crowther, 26801 Rolling Hills Road, Rolling Hills; Tuesday, 9:30 a.m. unit meets with Mrs. John Hummer, 2525 Via La Selva, Palos Verdes. Tuesday evening unit meets at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Allen Curtis, 206 Calle de Arboles in the Hollywood Riviera section of Torrance.

The fourth unit meets with Mrs. R. J. Calvert, 2615 Via Campesina, Palos Verdes. The Wednesday evening unit meets at 8 p.m. with Mrs. W. M. Todd, 5530 Bayridge Road, Palos Verdes Estates.

Any interested woman of voting age in the Torrance area is invited to attend any of these unit meetings and is also invited to become a member of the non-partisan League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Neil Hammond will commentate the fashions. Mrs. William Faulds is chairman of the event, assisted by Mmes. T. Bryant, N. Hammond, C. Allen, J. Roberts, H. Hayden and M. K. Sullivan.

A large group is expected to attend this gala occasion. Mrs. W. Rosenberry is ticket chairman. Refreshments will be served previous to the event. Mrs. T. Luke will be hostess for the evening.

Bridge Party

Mrs. Elizabeth Davies entertained her bridge club last Monday at her Teri Ave. home.

Dessert and coffee were served followed by the games. Mrs. Davies' guests were Mmes. Don Wolf, J. L. Harmon, D. P. LeGalley, D. J. Quinlivan, H. J. Osborne, Hazel Ward and Viola Shaw.

Royal Neighbors

North High

March 21 is the date for a most exceptional PTA program at North High school. This will be a student participation program with all four grades represented. The theme will be "Exploring Frontiers in Science" and five individual research projects will be explained from the working models which the students made themselves. Bob Dettman will demonstrate "Growing Crystals." Sue Edwards will speak on "Hereditry; Bob Rutter will explain his model entitled "Pendulum" and "Computer" is Greg Jackson's subject. Lastly, Sue Shimmun will illustrate the "Spiral Gyro." Mrs. Harvey Johnson, PTA president, announces that officers for the coming year will be elected as first order of business. Sophomore mothers are hostesses at the social hour, following the short business meeting and program.

March 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

Nominated are Mmes. James Miller, president; Mrs. Robert Maag, first vice president; Mrs. David Nelson, second vice president; Mrs. W. L. Eden, third vice; Mrs. Wendell Stilwell, fourth vice; Mrs. Nicholas Glass, recording secretary; Mrs. Harley Lynch, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Floyd Newell, treasurer; and Mrs. Jack Walters, historian.

The band, directed by Richard Ducar, will play and a skit will be presented by pupils of Mrs. Wood's room.

Rev. Charles Ara will be the speaker.

Reception To Follow Baptism

Anza

"Rough Seas" was the topic of the March 16 meeting of Anza PTA at which time a panel of teachers and parents discussed "Discipline at School." Panelists were Mrs. M. M. Hennigan, teacher; Mr. Evan Harrington, parent; Mr. Philip Korman, principal; Mr. Lamar Ormond, psychologist; and Marshall Hoalst, student. The nominating committee gave its report. Mrs. William Faulds, ways and means chairman, announced that there will be an Easter fashion show where children and members will be parading the runway wearing fashions they have made. Details will be announced at a later date. It was also voted to sponsor Girl Scout Troop 2507.

Seven-week-old Donald Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas H. Johnson, 2520 Sierra St., will be baptized at the 11 a.m. services today at Christ the King Lutheran Church in North Torrance. Pastor Maynard Midthun will officiate at the services.

Standing in as godparents will be Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wickersham, uncle and aunt of little Donald.

The child's father is a Northrop engineer and is governor of District 50 of Toastmasters International.

Donald will be baptized in an heirloom dress, becoming the third generation to be baptized in the gown.

Other Johnson children include Dianne, 9; Kenneth, 7, and Linda, 4.

A reception will be held at the family home following the church rites.

Narbonne

"Open the Door to International Relations" has been selected as the theme for the meeting of the Narbonne PTA on Tuesday, March 21, at 1:30 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose room.

The program will consist of a panel of Exchange students. The moderator will be Mr. Richard Bernard, a teacher at Narbonne who was a Fullbright Exchange teacher to Holland last year. His panel will be made up of the following students: Miss Wendy Goldin, from South Africa. Mr. Suleyman Yercil from Turkey, Miss Julie Lovell who visited in Switzerland last year, and Mr. John Ost who visited in Germany last year.

Featured at this meeting will be the chairman of the International Relations, Mrs. George Armstrong.

The hostesses for the afternoon will be the representatives of the B-11s.

The business of this meeting will consist of the election of officers, and the voting of the Association to help the Exchange students with their graduation expenses.

Seaside

Seaside PTA will elect officers at its meeting Tuesday,

Party Whirl Fetes Bride

Miss Linda Fowler, who became the bride of Donald Baumgart in a formal wedding at 7:30 p.m. Friday evening at the Christ the King Lutheran Church, has been feted at a whirl of pre-nuptial showers during the past few weeks.

Entertaining thirty guests honoring the bride-elect on Feb. 12 were Mrs. Ethel Rythern and Mrs. Mae Percy at the Davis home on Pennsylvania Ave. in Lomita.

On Feb. 17, twenty guests brought miscellaneous gifts for the future bride, to a party given by Mrs. Gertrude Alfred and Mrs. Grace McCabe at Mrs. Alfred's home in San Pedro.

Members of her bridal party, Misses Frankie Ward, Joanne Kangas and Vicky Davis entertained at a lingerie shower for the bride-elect at the Cypress Ave. home of Miss Ward.

School friends of Miss Fowler were invited to honor her at a shower given by Misses Sally Ash and Nancy Peterson at the Ash home on 252nd St. in Lomita. This was a miscellaneous shower.
