Easter Week Program Set By Local Y,

A full program of Easter week fun was announced by the Torrance YMCA today. Gra-Y Club members, dads and sons, will spend the weekend of March 25 and 26 camping at Littlerock Dam. Enroute, the group will clamber over Vasquez Rocks, ancient hide-out of early California bandits. Fishing, hiking and eating will fill the remainder of the outing.

Junior Hi-Y age boys, 12 to 15, will participate in a caravan to Death Valley National Monument. The group will visit Rhyolite Ghost Town, Scotty's Castle, Borax mines, and swim at Furnace Creek Ranch. The dates for this excursion are March 25 through 28th.

HIGH school and college students will travel with the Torrance YMCA to Catalina Island aboard the fishing boat "Off-shore." Skin diving, water skiing, fishing, campfires, and hiking will keep the older boys busy. A special campsite on the Isthmus has been secured for the group from March 27 to 30. Men of all walks of life will participate in the YMCA's Good Friday Breakfast, March 31, at the Biltmore Bowl.

Girls will also enjoy an Easter Fun Day with the YMCA on Saturday, April 1. Girls eight years old and older will view the movie, "Cinerama;" then a picnic in Griffith Park; and finally, visit the huge Crucifixion painting at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

AN APRIL Fool's Dance will be held at the Torrance YMCA on Saturday, April 1. The Y's college-age Phalanx Club sponsors that event.

The local youth agency is also busy mailing Easter materials to 2100 member families in order to enrich their celebration of this season.

Glamorous Bras
 Spring finds bras are dressing up for bared evening fashions and adding to that party-glamour feeling with finely wrought laces and delicate embroideries. The many styles designed for decollete fashions are not only ingeniously constructed to back up each late-day style, but are also fashioned with a view to enhancing that "pretty" feeling that women love.

Girl Scout Troop 289

Girls Scouts of Troop 289 have been busier than the local bee hive. There are 43 girls of Brownie, Intermediate, and Junior High program levels.

They began the new year with a trip to see the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo perform. It was a thrilling experience for all program levels.

On Jan. 20, they began the Red Cross Junior First Aid course, for the Junior High girls. Five guests from Boy Scout Troop 219 were invited to participate. Instructors were Frances Scott and Carol Thompson of Biggs Neighborhood. After 15 hours of work and a final test, everyone successfully completed the course and received Red Cross certification.

ON FEB. 4, the Brownies attended the Griffith Park Observatory showing of "Scouting the Sky." They gave glowing reports on their trip.

Feb. 9th, all program levels sang "America, The Beautiful" at the Lincoln School PTA meeting.

On Feb. 14, Intermediate and Junior High girls provided child care at Lincoln School during the School Bond election, from 4 to 7 p.m.

WITH THE help of Mrs. Helen Novotney, our Cookie Chairman, they tried to do their part in the Girl Scout Cookies sale.

Intermediate and Junior High girls hiked to Alondra Park for a cook-out on Feb. 22. Everyone got in the act and had a wonderful time. The menu included food from each of the Basic four Food groups. The climax of the day, however was the "big wind" that cleared the tables without being touched by human hands.

ON MARCH 4, all program levels attended the Youth Symphony at the Los Angeles Philharmonic, and just can't wait to go again next year.

Just in case someone might feel that there isn't much doing in this troop, we have been working our hearts out for the Fashion Show which was held March 14.

Leaders are Mrs. Billie L. Grigg, Doris Hall, Natalie McBee and Kathryn Michels.
