

AAUW Fetes Members At Workshop-Luncheon

Members of the Manhattan Beach Branch of the American Association of University Women will attend a combined workshop and luncheon honoring new members on Wednesday, March 29, from 9:30 to 1:30 p.m. at Mira Costa High School Cafeteria.

The purpose of such a workshop is to explain AAUW nationally and on the state and branch level, its objectives, its distinctiveness, and how it works. Also to review the work of study sections, to create interest and discover new topics for the coming year, and to garner as many new ideas as possible on all aspects of branch activity. This marks the end of the year of orientation for the new members, and will be climaxed by the annual luncheon honoring them.

The program begins with registration and coffee served at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Lowell E. Durham, president, will welcome workshop participants, followed by demonstration by Mrs. Orlando Tofoya and members of her children's Spanish class.

A series of short talks to form springboards for discussion will follow. "Women in Suburbia—Sane or Schizophrenic?" will be probed by Mrs. Raymond Kelly. Mrs. Ruben Jimenez has chosen for her topic, "For Whom the Belle Toils, or What Does an AAUW Member Contribute to her Community?" Mrs. Fred M. Roberts will speak on "Mass Media," followed by Mrs. L. Wheaton Smith on "Fellowship Education." The talks will be concluded with Mrs. Robert R. Raban speaking on "International Relations."

Members will then have a choice of two of the five buzz sessions to attend. Here they may express their own views and ideas under the leadership of moderators, Mmes. Roberts, Raban, Jimenez, Kelly, Jack A. Prince, and Daniel S. McDonald.

The group will then reconvene to hear the reports of the reporter-recorders Mmes. Durham, Adrian Brown, Robert H. White, L. D. Hessman, and Richard J. Rector. Mrs. Durham will then officially close the workshop, after which the new members luncheon will take place.

Program planning for the workshop has been under the direction of Mmes. Michael Lesh, Richard A. Willis, James W. Clemenger, and Sandy Moss.

Arrangements for the luncheon have been made by Mrs. Leland Partridge, membership chairman, and her committee, Mmes. Robert Rupkey, Eugene Dubil and James Thomason.

Mrs. William Hyam, chairman of the Arts section, has arranged for a display of original art work created by members of the branch.
