Cooper, a Chest volunteer for several years, is currently chairman of the General Budget Committee, whose 250 volunteer members assist in the allocation of funds to 170 Chest-supported services in the Los Angeles Area. Visceglia also said that Edwin H. Corbin, executive of Security First National Bank and chairman of the Chest's Associated Cities Committee, will serve as installation officer for new board officers and members. The meeting, expected to attract more than 300 persons, will honor Chest volunteers and generous givers.
