

Review Course In Instruments Set This Week

The tenth annual instrument short course, which will include review courses on fundamentals of instrumentation and controls, will be conducted at Harbor College Tuesday and Wednesday under the sponsorship of the Southern California Meter Assn. and the college.

C. B. Moore, president and founder of Moore Products Co., will be keynote speaker.

Pair Attending Harbor College Spring Sessions

Harbor College President Wendell C. Black and Dean of Instruction John A. Grasham represented the college at the annual spring conference of the California Junior College Assn. at Bakersfield Friday and Saturday.

Black, president of Southern California section of CJCA, presided at the general luncheon session Friday and was the chairman of a workshop meeting Friday evening to discuss the subject, "Physical Education, Requirement or Elective?"

Grasham led a panel discussion at one of the section meetings of the conference for deans of instruction, which was held in conjunction with the convention of the Junior College Assn. The panel discussed the subject, "Supervision of Instruction."

EGG HUNTS SLATED AT COUNTY PARKS

Easter egg hunts will be goals this week end as two county parks in the area stage annual hunts for boys and girls.

Lomita Park, 24428 Eshelman Ave., has scheduled its annual hunt for 11 a.m. next Friday and the hunt at Alondra Park, 3535 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Both events will be under the direction of the County Department of Parks and Recreation.

The purpose of the California Junior College Assn., organized in 1916, is to promote the advancement of public junior college education. More than 30 Southern California colleges are members of the organization.

Disputed Film To Be Shown At Legion Hall

The film, "Operation Abolition," which has met with varied reaction during showings around the nation, will be screened at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave., beginning at 8 p.m. Thursday, it was announced yesterday by Newt Mathis, Americanism chairman for the post.

Scheduled as a kick-off event in a program to promote patriotism, the film showing will be accompanied by an address by Kit Clardy, former Congressman and member of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Also speaking will be James Law, a member of the 17th Legion District, and former commander of a Los Angeles Post.

The Torrance post will be competing with others in California for the annual California State Legion Award, Commander Stanley Heiman said yesterday. Thursday's program is to be part of that campaign.

A special invitation has been extended to college students in the area to see the film Thursday, Mathis said.

Foursquare Churches Set Sunrise Service

Easter observances at the Torrance Foursquare Gospel Church will begin with a sunrise service at the Roosevelt Memorial Park with the local church combining with all the Foursquare churches of the centinela division, according to the Rev. James P. Lowen, pastor of the local church.

The Rev. Mr. Lowen, who also serves as Centinela Division superintendent for the churches, will bring the Easter message at his church at Arlington and Sepulveda at 10:45 a.m. The service will be climaxed with communion rites.

SPECIAL Easter music will be presented by the two church choirs at both the sunrise and regular church services under the direction of Mrs. Ruth White.

At the evening services, which begin at 7:15, a revival crusade will open with Evangelist Dick Mills delivering the message. The services will continue for two weeks, Tuesdays through Fridays, at 7:30 p.m. and on Sunday at the morning and evening services.

EVANGELIST Mills has conducted more than 300 revival campaigns throughout the United States and in Cuba, Nicaragua, Honduras, and Guatemala. In addition to his sermons, he plays the electric guitar and sings.

Special prayers for the sick will be offered at all services, the Rev. Mr. Lowen said. He extended a special invitation to the public to attend the special revival meetings.

Three Local Teachers Get Study Grants

Three Torrance teachers have been chosen to participate in the 1961 Summer Institute for High School Mathematics Teachers at the University of California at Santa Barbara, it was revealed this week.

Those selected include Raymond E. Liles, 21913 Linda Drive, Hawthorne High; Mrs. Nilane A. Lee, 3618 W. 226th St., North High; and Gordon E. Johnston, 21417 Marjorie Ave., Torrance High.

The trio are among 50 teachers who have been selected to participate in the six-week institute, which is held through a grant of $51,700 from the National Science Foundation.

The teachers receive free tuition, a stipend of $450, and allowances for dependents and travel.
