

Scout Norman Casson Gets Eagle Badge in Ceremonies

Fifteen-year-old Norman Casson, a native of Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, received the coveted Eagle Award in ceremonies at the Moose Lodge last Thursday. District Commissioner Paul Konstan made the presentation.

The new Eagle, who has resided with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Casson, in Torrance since 1953, has been a member of the Moose Lodge-sponsored Troop 315 and is now a member of Explorer Post 315X. Two years ago he represented his troop at Cedar Badge training program at Lake Arrowhead, and in the same year completed the Golden Arrowhead hike with his troop.

HE ATTENDS Fleming Junior High School where he has been a member of the Nobles, scholarship-leadership class; and now is a member of the Knights. He will attend Narbonne High School this fall.

He has been interested in all sports, and last year played for the Solons in the Torrance Babe Ruth League, and was chosen for the all-star team which went to the district

AF Medical Specialists Sought Here

Master Sergeant James P. LeFevre, local Air Force recruiter, announced today that the Air Force is facing a rising demand for qualified applicants to enter the Air Force Medical Specialists Corps.

Sgt. LeFevre emphasized the fact that Occupational Therapists, Physical Therapists and Dietitians all are needed and, upon acceptance are commissioned in grades commensurate with age, education and professional experience. Qualified applicants enter active duty in their commissioned grades and enjoy the same pay and benefits as other Air Force officers of equal grade.

Air Force medical specialists work with the most modern equipment available in an atmosphere that is thoroughly professional. A variety of duty assignments are available, both in the United States and overseas, offering an excellent opportunity for travel.

Educational requirements for Occupational and Physical Therapists are a bachelor's degree and a certificate showing completion of an Occupational or Physical Therapy course. Dietitians must possess a bachelor's degree and a certificate showing completion of Dietetic Internship.

Additional information concerning the Medical Specialists Program may be obtained from Sgt. LeFevre by phoning Airfax 8-1404 or by visiting the Air Force Recruiting office at 1319 1/2 Sartori Ave.

"FUNNY THING HAPPENED... on the way to Glendale Federal today..."

Left home with a busy schedule of things to do ... first on the list: drop by Glendale Federal to add to the family savings. Convenient ... easy ... Love that Glendale Federal ... so does husband Steve. On way, mail letter to mother ...

Ran into neighbor Don at corner mailbox ... he's the neighborhood Little League coach. We have a lot in common ... I wasn't surprised to learn that his family saves at Glendale Federal ... he has trust accounts there, too. Something I didn't know.

Also family lawyer and brother of sister

Coffee with Beverly to plan our Square Dance Club benefit hoedown. Told Beverly about Don and Glendale. Beverly told me about Glendale, too. She's the club treasurer ... and our club account has always been at Glendale Federal. No wonder our treasury grows. Smart gal, Bev.

Smarter, even, than I thought. Her new nursery is divine! ... mostly white and print, so that both pink and blue will look all right. She and Allan built the new nursery with a Home Improvement Loan from -- guess who: Glendale Federal! Was I surprised? Well ... not really.

Lunch with husband Steve and Steve's Dear Dad. Dad's golf is improving. Dad had to leave early to make a date with (here we go again!) Glendale Federal. He and most of his associates have some of their Investment Funds at Glendale Federal. Isn't that impressive ...? Steve and I exchanged winks.

Dinner (my new veal casserole that Steve loves) at home, with friends. Reviewed day with Steve. We decided that we're not the only ones. EVERYBODY LOVES GLENDALE FEDERAL. Didn't dare tell Steve that I didn't make it to Glendale Federal. Tomorrow. First thing! (Veal casserole a big success!)
