

Harbor Banking Chapter Will Host District Speech Contest

Harbor District Chapter, American Institute of Banking will host the District 7 Public Speaking Contest on Saturday, April 15th, at the Plush Horse Inn, Redondo Beach. Contestants and representatives will attend from chapters in California, Arizona and Hawaii, according to David L. Brockmeier, Bank of America, Los Angeles Headquarters, member of the National Public Speaking Committee and general chairman of the event.

Registration will begin at 8 a.m. The contest will start at 1:30 p.m. Dinner at 7 p.m. will follow the afternoon contest. John H. Galipeau, president of Harbor District Chapter, United California Bank, Long Beach office, is in charge of local arrangements; Pat O'Connor, Security First National Bank, Long Beach office, finance; Perry Carter, First National City Bank, Long Beach publicity chairman; Sybil Snead, Bank of America, Long Beach main office, social chairman; Majel Dick, Bank of America, Belmont Shore Branch, registrations.

District 7 sub topic for the semi final Public Speaking Contest for the A. P. Giannini Educational Endowment prizes is "Would Continuing Inflation be a Threat to U.S. Economic Growth? Why?" The winner will be awarded a perpetual District 7 trophy and will participate in the National Public Speaking Contest for the A. P. Giannini Educational Endowment prizes to be held the week of May 29 in Seattle in competition with contestants from districts over the nation. First prize at the National contest is $500, second prize $300, third prize $100 plus all expenses paid.

Public speaking, debate, forums and seminars constitute a part of the educational program provided by the American Institute of Banking in addition to the night classroom courses. Founded in 1900 by the American Bankers Assn at the request of a handful of bank clerks who wanted opportunities to delve into the intricacies of their profession, the American Institute of Banking is now the world's largest educational organization. Known as "A School Without a Campus," the Institute is nationwide with well over 150,000 members and 86,000 enrollments, 317 chapters and 196 study groups. California shows the largest membership growth with an increase of 1940 members in 1960.

OES Spring Festival on Saturday

Lomita Chapter 591, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its spring festival in the Lomita Masonic Temple, 25725 Bland Place, on Saturday, April 15, with Edith Jackman, conductress, as general chairman.

A fish pond booth will attract the children and there will be other booths filled with needlework and sewing, hosiery, baked goods, candy, plants, and parcel post packages.

All the booths will open at 3 p.m. and an old fashioned chicken dinner will be served from 4 until 7 p.m.

Betty Lou Church, worthy matron, and Glenn Holloway, worthy patron, will serve as hosts for the dinner.

Fuchsia Society To Hear Speaker

C. B. "Doc" Houghton will be guest speaker at the Lomita Branch of the California National Fuchsia Society, 24702 Narbonne Ave., Lomita at 8 p.m. Friday, April 21. He will speak on "Budding and Grafting." Members are invited to bring a friend.

There will be door prizes, a plant table, and refreshments.
