Girl Scout Troop 2000

Girl Scout Troop 2000 spent a day at Camp Ventura during Easter vacation. Arriving at the camp at 8 a.m., the girls were shown to Camp Barbeque, the beautiful camp with trees, fun, brush century plants, and vines all surrounding the camp. The girls were immediately handed axes, saws, and hatchets to start work on the area. After a number of hours with the various tools, the girls had sawed down four trees, sawed the trees in pieces, and loaded a truck of dead twigs and debris.

After this the girls all dug into their nose bag lunch and punch. Completing the lunch period the girls celebrated their third birthday with a birthday cake that was made by Mrs. Mildred Johnson.

After this the girls decided to do some exploring in this 160 acres of trees and hills. The girls found a number of plants such as a large area of century plants, bamboo, ferns and huge beds of Nasturtiums, while above the trees were bowing and leaning in all directions, as the winds of the years had planned them to grow.

After a rest period during which the girls spent eating apples, they were all busy chopping and sawing again.

Supervising the trip were Leader Marty Lehr, Mrs. Doris Lippard, and D. Shiver. Girls that participated were Dianne Brannon, Linda Clark, Dianne Lippard, Vicki Townsend, Louise Burton, Sharon Tucker, Valeria Burton, Sandy Chmielewski, Donna Flicker, Mart Lehr, Susan Johnson, Andre Tindley, Chere Riley, Jannie Webb, Gwen Mills, Sandy Olson, and Teresa Shivar.

Sponsor of the troop is the Harbor Lite Dog Obedience Club of Los Angeles and San Pedro.
