

DRAMATIC MOMENT . . . The villain, played by Louis Kilchenman, in the Korny Kaper Variety Show to open tomorrow night is emphatic in his accusations to Fanny's mother, Mrs. Hefferwaite, played by Blanche Angus as Fanny, played by Dianne Palser, pleads her case. The show will be produced for four evenings. Proceeds will go to Eta Kappa chapter's campership fund.

Philanthropy Project Variety Show Curtain Rises Friday Evening

"Korny Kapers" Variety show is in final dress rehearsal in preparation for curtain tomorrow evening at 8:30 in the Activities Building, 3850 Manhattan Beach Blvd. Members of Eta Kappa chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, their husbands and members of the Alondra Players are polishing up the olio routines for the three-act melodrama "Perils of Fanny." The show promises to take patrons back to the vaudeville days of the old Palace theatre when the audience hissed the villain and cheered the hero.

Xi Zetas In Program On Hawaii

Members of Xi Zeta Lambda, Beta Sigma Phi, enjoyed a cultural program "Holidays in Hawaii" presented by Mrs. Eric Swanson. Mrs. Bert Whited, president elect, and Mmes. Lester Mayfield and William Schroeder attended the 21st annual State convention of Beta Sigma Phi in Coronado April 14-16.

Founder's Day Banquet at the Hacienda Hotel on April 29 will be a highlight of the year for Xi Zeta Lambda. Indian costumes will be donned by sorority members as they assist the South Bay Area Council in sponsoring the Southern California Council Breakfast in May at the Thunderbird Hotel. At the next meeting of Xi Zeta Lambda on April 25 at the home of Mrs. Richard Musto, Torrance, Mrs. Raymond Millhouse will summarize study by the chapter during the year on "Hawaii and Her Sister Islands."

AAUW Units In Joint Meet Today

The joint meeting of the Manhattan Beach, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills, and San Pedro branches of the American Assn. of University Women, which is set for 8 o'clock tonight in the auditorium of the Malaga Cove school, will be presided over by Mrs. Donald Limerick, president of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch, since this serves as the regular general meeting for that branch.

Mrs. Limerick will introduce Mrs. Lowell Dunham, president, and Mrs. James W. Clemenger, program chairman of the Manhattan Beach branch, and Mrs. Graydon K. Hofferber, president, and Mrs. Nicholas Zorotovich, program chairman of the San Pedro branch. She will then introduce Mrs. H. C. McLendon, program chairman of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch, who has made the arrangements for this joint meeting.

Since the theme for the April general meeting of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch is "Service Through Education," it is part of the Education Section's activity for the year, and Mrs. Joseph Goodwin, Study Group chairman, will have the pleasant duty of introducing Muriel Wolfson in her presentation of "Two Lives," the story in dramatic monologue form of the life of Helen Keller.

Members of the three branches are looking forward to meeting together and enjoying a program of such common appeal.

MRS. MICHAEL L. STRECH
... On Honeymoon
(Portrait by Seeman)

Busch-Strech Nuptials Read at First Lutheran

In a mid-afternoon ceremony on Saturday, April 8 at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance, Miss Sandra Dawn Busch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Busch, 17018 Cranbrook Ave., became the bride of Michael L. Strech. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John Strech, Jr., 3607 244th St., Torrance.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a traditional wedding gown of white silk organza and Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice had a scalloped neckline, outlined in pearl sequins, and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was caught up in the front and enhanced with rows of Chantilly lace. The full skirt draped into a chapel train at the back. The French illusion veil was secured by a single rose the center of which was sprinkled with crystal dewdrops. White orchids and carnations formed the bouquet.

Miss Elaine Busch was the maid of honor. She wore an orchid taffeta sheath with a bouffant overskirt and carried a cascade of orchid carnations. Bridesmaids were Misses Deloris Simpson, Bonnie Busch, Linda McMakin, Miss Simpson was in turquoise taffeta, Miss Busch in Persian rose, and Miss McMakin in green. Each carried a bouquet of carnations to match her gown.

Sharon Hall, in orchid organza, was the flower girl and Dale Busch was the ring bearer.

Rodney Wallace served as best man and ushers were Larry Stevenson, Steve Welch and Derrick Busch.

The Rev. William Roder officiated at the marriage ceremony. Miss Jan Bradley sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer." She was accompanied by Clifton Stout, who also played the wedding marches.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Dwan Saunders was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are spending a honeymoon in Santa Barbara and will make their home in San Diego where the bridegroom is stationed with the United States Navy.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Strech are graduates of North High school.

Undercover Agents To Address Las Vecinas

Author of "I Was a Spy" and undercover agent, Marion Miller, will lecture at the April 27 meeting of the Las Vecinas Woman's Club, announces Mrs. William Petersen, program chairman.

"We were Communists for the FBI," will be the topic of Mrs. Miller's speech, depicting experiences of herself and her husband, Paul Miller, as undercover agents in the Communist conspiracy. The couple have been given commendations on behalf of Dwight D. Eisenhower, Richard Nixon and J. Edgar Hoover, plus appearing on Ralph Edwards' "This is Your Life" television program.

A business meeting presided over by Pres., Mrs. Albert Kurtz, at the one o'clock meeting at the Plush Horse Restaurant, will be followed by a tea and social under the direction of Mrs. Mel Heflinger, tea chairman, assisted by the Mmes. Don Malone, Lester Oswald, and Fred T. Vedder.

Nominating chairman, Mrs. Lee Flanagan, will present the following slate of new officers: Mmes. Thomas O'Malley, president; Mel Heflinger, first vice president; Frank Carroll, second vice president; Joseph Jay, recording secretary; Lester Oswald, corresponding secretary; Don Malone, treasurer; Robert Nowhere? Not quite. There is still a Thom McAn. We can still do it for $5.99. It's not easy—but we've had a lot of practice. We're the biggest shoe chain in America. We cut corners on costs without cutting corners on quality. At Thom McAn the styles may be new. But the values are just like the old days.

The shoe shown above is a bone-colored wing-tip pump with a spectator mid-heel. Looks expensive. It's not. Only $5.99.
