Spreading the fence paint are from left, Mmes. Bettye Smith, Millie Galyard, Jean Hagenbaugh and Nadine Wayt. The opening game will be May 7.

Fellowship Coffee At YW Friday

The work of the World Council of the YWCA will be featured when Jeanette Patchin speaks at a World Fellowship coffee hour on Friday, April 8, at 10 a.m. at the Torrance Branch of the YWCA, 2320 Carson St.

Miss Patchin, who attended the World Council meeting held in Cuernavaca, Mexico, last fall is director of the San Pedro Branch. Before coming to work in the Harbor Area she worked for the National Board in Guadalajara, Mexico. Her duties there were to develop program and leadership and to establish clubs for teenagers and young adults. In addition, she organized a YWCA Camp which was something new in Guadalajara. Prior to this she was the teenage program director on the staff of the Long Beach YW.

In addition to the slides of the World Council meeting, Miss Patchin will show some of the work in Guadalajara, Mexico.

The coffee hour has been arranged by the World Fellowship Committee of the Torrance Branch with Mrs. J. B. Mosley, chairman. She will be assisted by Mrs. M. M. Schwab and Mrs. C. H. Thompson.

The program is open to members and friends who would like to learn more of the work of the YWCA around the world.

Mrs. Lewand New Gamma Phi President

Mrs. Raymond G. Lewand, 19808 Cadison Place, Torrance, will be installed as president of the Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae of the South Bay at a luncheon meeting at the Plush Horse on April 13. Mrs. Lewand has been a resident of Torrance for three and a half years. She is the mother of three daughters, Lucy, Joellen and Christina. Mr. Lewand is employed by Northrop.

Installed with Mrs. Lewand will be Mrs. Bent Davies of Rolling Hills, first vice president; Mrs. Robert C. Hamer of Redondo Beach, second vice president; Mrs. Virgil Hawks of Hawthorne, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Moses of Palos Verdes, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. J. McLeith of Playa Del Rey, recording secretary.

Mrs. Paul A. Winn of Palos Verdes has charge of the program following the luncheon. All Gamma Phi Betas in the area are invited to attend the meeting. For reservations Mrs. Virgil Hawks may be called.

Republican Women Will Hear Three Candidates

Pat Hillings, Tom Coffee and Vince Isham will be heard at the meeting of the South Bay Club of Federated Republican Women on Thursday, April 14, at the Fish Shanty, 4020 Pacific Coast Highway, Waverly, at 12 noon.

Patrick J. Hillings is chairman of the Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee. He is a former U.S. Congressman — 25th District. He is an expert on National and International affairs and often has been called to the White House for consultation on legislation. He has made an extensive study of conditions behind the Iron Curtain and also has an impressive background on legal and political experience.

Henry (Tom) Coffee is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congressman in the 17th District. After a brilliant engineering career, he became president and chief engineer of the Sierra Transformer Co., a business he started. Mr. Coffee is intensely interested in tax reductions, balanced budgets and the free enterprise system.

Vincent Lee Isham, owner of Loyola Realty Co., is also a candidate for Congressman in the 17th District. He states that he is a "middle-of-the-road" Republican — neither conservative nor a liberal. Some of his aims are: increased production in local defense plants, a reduction in spending and an advance in science and technology.

For luncheon reservations call Mrs. Bertha Walters.

Members are reminded of the fund raising luncheon and card party on April 22 at La Venta Inn, Palos Verdes Estates. Reservations are being accepted by Mrs. Martin Faerber, chairman, and by Mrs. Thomas Elder.

Circus Party For Cherlyne

A circus motif was used by Mrs. Kenneth McVey for the party last Saturday at the McVey home, 17644 Cranbrook Ave., honoring her daughter, Cherlyne who was celebrating her fifth birthday.

Party favors were miniature circus tents and animals. Circus hats were given to the youngsters as they played several games for prizes.

A merry-go-round birthday cake was served with ice cream. David McVey, brother of the honoree, made colored movies of the party.

Helping Cherlyne celebrate were Karen Scally, Paula Adams, Patty McGhee, Diane Clark, Patty Adams, Milan Michalek, Shelly Walden and Janice Morgan.

Queen To Be Named By Fuchsia Unit

Four candidate will vie for the queen title at the meeting of the North Torrance Branch of the California National Fuchsia society when it meets next Tuesday evening at McMasters Hall, 174th and Yukon Ave.

Candidates are Donna Morgan, Susan McGranahan, Kathryn Blotzer and Kay Hyde.

The queen will compete with queens from 21 other branches for the honor to serve as queen of the annual Fuchsia and Shade Plant show to be held in Long Beach in June.

Another highlight of Tuesday's meeting will be a hat parade in which both men and women will participate. Hats must be decorated with real flowers and there will be prizes in three categories.

"Whoopie" will be played during the social hour and refreshments will be served under the direction of Mrs. John Donahue.

Houseguests

Arriving Thursday for a month's visit here with Mrs. Joseph Comore, 1642 W. 214th St. were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marasco of Des Moines. The Marascos have spent the winter in Acapulco, Mexico.
