Obituaries

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 1 p.m. at Stone and Myers Chapel, for Weslie Eugene Wyman, 47, of 929 Arlington Ave.

Mr. Wyman, a resident of Torrance for the past 15 years, died Thursday at his home. He had been employed as a shipwright at the Long Beach Naval Base.

He is survived by his wife, Clara; one daughter, Joan Davis; two brothers, Joseph and Neal, both of Vermont; a sister, Mrs. John Donahue of Mass., and his mother, Mrs. Lulu Wymann of Vermont.

Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman will officiate at the services, with interment to follow at Green Hills Cemetery.

All Torrance High School students received their report cards on Tuesday. The report cards were filled out by each period teacher with academic and citizenship grades. They were then sent home with the students to be signed and returned to school on the following day.

A pickle sale was announced by the Senior Class on Tuesday and Wednesday. Dill and sweet pickles could be purchased in the shack during snack and lunch. The proceeds from the sale are to be used for the coming Senior Class activities.

THE TORRANCE High School Student Body sponsor-eda charity drive on Thursday. Representatives from the Student Council visited all fourth period classes to collect donations.

The money received went to three leading charities: the Red Cross, the March of Dimes and the Community Chest. A Charity Sock Hop was held in the girl's gym during the lunch hour on Friday. During this time additional donations for the charity drive were taken.

NOMINATION BLANKS for Student Body, Class, and League offices were made available in the Student Activities office on Thursday. All eligible students are urged to run for an office. Judy Sherwood, ASB vice president, is in charge of the elections.

THE TARTAR-Varsity baseball team hosted Lennox High School at Torrance Park on Thursday. They were victorious with a 6-0 score. The JV's traveled to Lennox where they also picked up a win.

THE INGLEWOOD Invitational track relays were held on Thursday and Friday. About 15 schools participated in the event.

The GAA tried something new last Friday when they held a Father-Daughter Sports Nite. Among the many sports offered were checkers, chess, badminton, shuffleboard, etc. The purpose of the Sports Nite was to bring the father closer to GAA. They also sponsor a bi-annual Mother-Daughter Banquet.

Unreality Of Discord Lesson-Topic

How God's goodness and allness establishes the basis for universal harmony will be brought out today at all Christian Science services. The question "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon.

Scriptural selections will include the following passages from Deuteronomy, "Hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the Lord God of your fathers giveth you . . . Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the Lord is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else."

Incurable Disease Blamed for Suicide

Despondency over an incurable illness was blamed Friday for the suicide of Edwin F. Keran, 61, of 430 Palos Verdes Blvd., who shot himself in the head. His wife, Cecile, told police he had been suffering from an incurable disease.

"You are getting old if you remember when the hero of a novel didn't kiss the heroine until the last chapter."
