

Veres Pitches Warriors to 4-3 Win

Torrance-South

Rivals Collide Again Tuesday

Both teams are mathematically eliminated from the Southern California high school playoffs, but you can bet that the action will be hot and heavy Tuesday when Torrance and South collide again.

The Pioneer League game is scheduled to get under way at 3 p.m. at South, where the Spartans will try to avenge an earlier 10 to 1 drubbing from their cross-town rivals.

Tom Richardson for Torrance and either Bob Wehrhan (1-1) or Larry Thomas (2-3) for South will pitch what is liable to be the final league meeting between the two schools for quite some time.

SOUTH is ticketed for the bigger Bay League for next year.

TORRANCE will enter the contest with a 5 and 4 league won-lost record. South is 3-4. Torrance is still embarrassed from Thursday's 7 to 6 loss to previously winless Beverly Hills.

This after the Tartars KO'd league-leading El Segundo 4 to 3 in nine innings on Tuesday.

South should be well rested after only one game last week, an 8 to 5 non-loop loss to Banning.

Coach Jerry McInvalne's crew was rained out both Thursday and Friday against Lennox. The game will be played on May 17th if it will have any bearing on the standings.

EL SEGUNDO and Culver City, two of the three teams tied for the top spot in the standings, were also rained out and will play their "make-up" on the 17th.

Torrance's leading hitter for the season is firstbaseman Jim Armstrong, with a .354 average. Steve McGuire, Billy Williams, and Erv Palica are also above the .300 standard.

South's Joe Austin and Mike Andrews are both sporting fat .358 marks and lead the city in the hitting department.

SHOFNER SIGNS LONG-TERM PACT

Del Shofner, unanimous All-Pro end in both 1958 and 1959, has signed contracts with the Los Angeles Rams covering the 1960, 1961 and 1962 seasons, general manager Elroy Hirsch announced yesterday.

In 1959, Del gained 936 yards on 47 receptions to rank second in the loop in both departments. He was All-Pro in 1958 and 1959.

It is extremely rare on American tracks to see a horse over ten-years old, but in Japan a 14-year-old gelding won a race, ridden by a jockey who was 72.

The Eleventh Frame

By DONNA BARKDULL

Action is heavy in the Bowl-O-Drome's 3rd Anniversary Doubles Sweeper at Southern California ten-pin addicts vie in competition for the $2,000 guaranteed prize fund.

As of last Friday G. Mathers and H. Abrams held the top spot in the men's division with their scorching 1347 tally.

Ten spots in the men's doubles guarantees to pay $100, as is the first ten top scores in the mixed doubles, currently led by first week's leaders, Howard and Dottie Holmes and their power-packed 1321 dual effort. H. Abrams and K. Bates came off the lanes with 1318 to be listed in second.

P. Allen roared to a towering 737 to cop the number one position in the Men's Singles column, followed by J. McKee with 716, S. Shumard with 700 and B. Hill with 696.

Still holding onto the top slot in the Women's Singles is Dottie Holmes and her breathtaking 716 effort, with Clara Cucci producing a blistering 698 to be listed in second spot, followed by Kate Bates with 684 and D. Burr with 676.

Third week standings in Bowl-O-Drome's 3rd Anniversary Doubles Sweeper are unofficial and subject to changes due to re-rating of bowlers, verification of averages and of course higher scores produced.

YOUTH HONORED 'Parade Day To Kick-Off 1960 Season

Floats, pretty girls, 3000 uniformed young ballplayers, free ice cream, and celebrities will be included in Torrance's first Baseball Parade Day Saturday, commemorating "Youth Baseball Day" in the city.

The parade party, made up of members of the city's 16 voluntary Little League, Pony League, and Babe Ruth League, will assemble at 10 a.m. Saturday and proceed down Crenshaw Blvd. to Torrance Blvd. to the Civic Center Building.

EACH LEAGUE in the city will enter a float, with judges to determine the prize winners for Best Theme, Most Original, and Most Beautiful.

Dodger stars will be on hand as will Mayor Albert Isen and other city dignitaries.

Preceding the parade, which will officially kick-off the 1960 youth baseball season in Torrance, will be the long-awaited queen contests, when Miss Baseball and Miss Little League contestants will be judged.

Each league has also submitted candidates for the queen posts.

Parade Day chairman, working with volunteer league representatives, is Jim Davidson. Pot Hogue is Baseball Commissioner.

FLOAT JUDGES will be Sam Levy, local merchant; Dr. J. H. Hull, Supt. of Torrance Schools; and Harry Van Belleham, Director of Recreation of the city.

Queen contest judges will be Mike Callas of the Torrance Press, Mildred Hunt of the Daily Breeze, and Bill Schipper of the Torrance Herald.

Twenty-four hundred ice-cream bars will be distributed free by the Torrance Elks Club at the Civic Center in conjunction with the Elks' National Youth Day.

Music for the parade will be provided by the Torrance Area Junior Youth Band.

ANGLERS ADVISED OF LAWS TO LOOK OUT FOR

In connection with the opening of the general trout season Saturday, anglers, especially newcomers to the sport, were advised by the Department of Fish and Game today of what to look out for to avoid running afoul of the law.

- The most common order of pitfalls is as follows:
1. Possession of proper license (basic license with two stamps for trout).
  2. Fishing hours (one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset, in most instances).
  3. Gear Restrictions (one closely attended rod or handline—no more than three hooks).
  4. Bait Regulations (chumming prohibited in nearly all inland waters).
  5. Bag limits (ten trout or salmon in combination, but not more than 10 pounds and one fish, generally).
  6. Special stream closures.
- All fishermen will benefit by close reading of the 1960 Sport Fishing Regulations. A copy of the regulations is available free from the license dealer.

Saxons Seem Cinch For CIF Playoffs

North High's Saxons virtually sewed up a CIF playoff berth last week with a 9 to 2 triumph over Inglewood to stay within one game of pace-setting Mira Costa in the Bay League's baseball race.

Rainy weather failed to halt Coach Bob Shoup's surging nine, which jumped off to a four run first inning lead and was never headed against the defending league co-champions.

THE VICTORY in itself was not surprising, but the margin and ease had eyes blinking up and down the Bay conference.

Inglewood went into the game in a two team tie for second place with the Saxons, after a one-run loss to North in the first round.

Sophomore lefthander Billy Kehoe twirled a neat three-hitter and didn't give up an earned run as he struck out nine and walked seven.

The Saxons play all of their next three games away from home, against Hawthorne and Redondo this week and Santa Monica next week to end the regular season.

SINGLES BY Jim Carrico, Frank Van Patten, Dave Marsden, and Rick Jacobs set off the fireworks against Inglewood Thursday in the first frame. The four safeties, plus an error, a bunt, and two stolen bases combined to ruin the Sentinels.

One of the thefts was of home, one of North's favorite tricks this season.

Only one baseball team in Torrance's 14 year history in the CIF has ever entered the playoffs. That was South High's Crescent League championship team last year, when the Spartans — then a three year school — ran away from the four team loop.

Raia's Bat Sparks EC; Title Hopes Still Alive

El Camino College's Frank Raia broke up an air-tight 3 to 3 pitchers duel Friday with a scoring fly ball to right field in the 10th inning to enable the Warriors to dump Bakersfield in a thrilling Metro Conference cliffhanger in the northern city.

Raia, filling in at shortstop for the second straight game, drove home Art Adams with the winning tally for his third RBI of the afternoon as Coach Chuck Freeman's club pulled to within two games of conference leading Valley JC.

Roeder in Town For Friday's AMA 'Cycle Rac

Fabulous George Roeder of Ohio is expected in town for Friday night's American Motorcycle Association racing meet at Ascot Stadium.

Roeder, say the expects, promises to make an impression like another Midwesterner, Bart Markel, who took the Southland motorcycle race fans by storm.

The Ohioan recently finished second in the Indianapolis of cycle racing, the 200-mile Daytona Beach National. His string of triumphs in the Midwest is amazing.

Roeder will have plenty of chance to prove his ability. For one reason, Sammy (The Flying Flea) Tanner is back after his recent foot injury and should be at near peak form.

Then there's such other rugged customers as Troy Lee, Don Hawley, Bob Sirkegian, Johnny Muckenthaler, Joe Leonard, Dick Dorrestyn, Dick Terhune and Jack O'Brien to contend with.

Three regular games and a protested replay game remain on the Warriors' schedule.

ADAMS, the team's regular shortstop until hit on the hand by a pitched ball last week against Harbor, setting off a controversy which resulted in the protest, opened the 10th frame with a double off the left field wall, moved up 90 feet on Spence Beard's infield safety, then scored on Raia's sacrifice fly.

Adams entered the game during a two-run 6th inning rally as a pinch-runner for Dundee Jones, an outfielder who had two hits for the afternoon.

Winning pitcher Ronnie Veres overcame a shaky start to go the route to rack up his 7th victory in eight starts. The freshman righthander struck out seven and walked only one.

HE WAS never in trouble from the fourth inning on, and effectively scattered eight hits through the 10 frames. Two of the three Bakersfield runs were unearned.

Coach Freeman said he'd call on the "stopper" again Tuesday when the Tribe runs up against Long Beach City College at El Camino's diamond. LBCC and the Warriors are knotted in second place, with 7 and 3 records.

If El Camino can go on to take its remaining scheduled games, plus the protest (which will be played from the 8th inning on, with one out and Adams on first and EC trailing 4 to 2) the team could either tie or win the title.

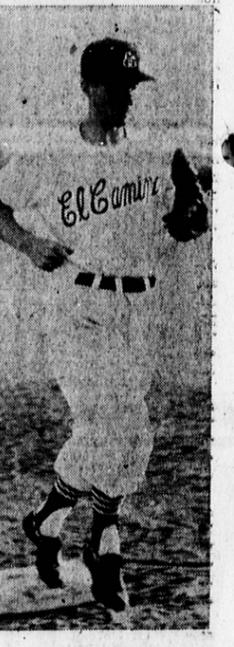

RAIA, Fridays batting hero with two hits and three RBIs, seems to have won a regular starting job, although Adams' hand is well enough to allow him to play regularly now.

Raia had three hits in Tuesday's 10-4 victory, and came up with a defensive gem during Friday's contest.

Coach Freeman said that Adams will move into the outfield.

Oddball Octopus Shows up Again In Monterey Bay

A rarely seen California octopus was taken by a trawl boat off Monterey Bay last month. It is commonly called a flapjack devilfish, but its scientific name is Opisthotentacles Californiana Berry.

The Berry is after S. Stillman Berry, a marine biologist, who first described the animal in 1948. Only four known specimens have ever been captured in California waters.

All eight tentacles are joined by a flabby web of flesh—why, nobody knows.

The innards of this beast are peculiar, too. Many accoutrements of the normal octopus are just not to be found in the flapjack devilfish.

Berry describes it as "resembling in about equal degree a soggy pancake or very dirty floor-mop."

Buck Lansford Inks Ram Pact

Alex "Buck" Lansford, veteran guard who is expected to spearhead the Rams' offensive line next season, has returned his signed 1960 contract, general manager Elroy Hirsch has revealed.

DISCUSS MAN... Husky Jack Henderson, holder of the El Camino College discuss record of 144 feet, is shown in practice form as he prepared for yesterday's Southern California Relays at Santa Ana College, where the top JC spikers in the southland competed for medals. Henderson was one of the chief El Camino hopes for a first place.
