Two Picked For Essays In Contest

"Power for Peace" essays written by a South High School girl and a North High School boy won an Armed Forces Day Theme contest among Torrance high school students, it was announced Saturday.

Chosen by a panel of judges were compositions penned by Paige Baille, 17, of 341 Calle Miramar, and Terry Swift, 17, of 17805 Florwood Ave.

Their themes were selected from among those submitted by more than 100 senior English students in the city's three high schools.

The pair will be honored during a high Armed Forces Day Celebration planned for next Saturday.

The fete, regarded as the most ambitious in Southern California this year, will include an 11 a.m. parade along Torrance Blvd., display of military equipment at Civic Center, and a ball at the National Guard Armory.

Best Art Work Of El Camino To Be Displayed

Best of art work of El Camino College students will be given to the best four entries representing the seven divisions. These include judging in oil painting, water color, life drawing, beginning drawing, sculpture, ceramics, design and advertising art.

Approximately $200 in awards will be given to the best four entries representing the seven divisions. These include judging in oil painting, water color, life drawing, beginning drawing, sculpture, ceramics, design and advertising art.

TOMORROW'S show will begin at 7 and close at 10 p.m. The evening has been chosen as family night, where the general public as well as El Camino students are invited to attend.

Sunday's art display will open at 2 p.m.; the public is also invited to attend the afternoon showing, which will close at 5 p.m.

HICKSON Galleries of Manhattan Beach have donated a $45 merchandise award to the best all-around piece of art of the show. Gardena Rotary will present $150 to the best in three divisions. These will be fine arts, advertising art, and crafts.

El Camino's cosmetology department will also present a family night show tomorrow evening. The show, held in the Technical Arts building facing Manhattan Beach Blvd. on the northwest side of campus, will last from 6 to 9:30 p.m.

"IN PAST YEARS competition has been high spirited in each division represented," Donald Green, counselor and art instructor said.

"This year we are looking for better and finer art forms for the public's eye."

New Magic Chef Market To Have Complete Restaurant When Open

"Let's have dinner at Magic Chef Market!" That's the invitation that will be heard in Torrance soon, when the great new Magic Chef Market opens at Hawthorne and Sepulveda in the Del Amo Shopping Center.

Dinner in the market won't mean a picnic in the aisles at Magic Chef, but a delicious meal prepared by a master chef and served in luxurious surroundings, for one of the most exciting innovations in this market-of-tomorrow is a complete restaurant within the walls.

Under the direction of famed chef Jerry Mehlmann, the Magic Chef Restaurant will specialize in the classic dishes of delicatessen-restaurant cuisine.

The Magic Chef restaurant will serve at all times during market hours, 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Many of the restaurant specialties will be available to take home, including salads, home-cooked soups, chickens barbecued in Southern California's largest rotisserie, and much more, including a wide range of exotic delicacies.

The Magic Chef Restaurant will seat 70 people, in booths and at a quick-service counter.

No expense has been spared in decoration of the restaurant. Cerulean blue upholstery accents the warmth of pecky cypress wall paneling. Decorative grillwork sets the restaurant apart from the busy market, giving privacy but allowing free circulation of comfort-conditioned air. Even smallest details have been planned for a feeling of luxury and serenity.

One of the world's largest super markets, the new Magic Chef Market has been planned throughout to fill the special need for today's shopper. Opening date will be announced shortly.

Cooperative Nursery Sets Open House

Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m. has been chosen as open house hours of the Parent Cooperative Nursery School of the Torrance Unified School District.

The school is located in the Baptist Church buildings at 4558 W. 182nd St., two blocks west of Hawthorne Blvd.

Mrs. Tom Miller, chairman of the event expressed hopes that all interested persons of the area will take advantage of this affair to view the school. She will be assisted by Mrs. Dewey French, Mrs. Theodore Meier, and Mrs. Jack Brunson.

The school has been established for children three to five years old. Also, it is a parent education program sponsored by the Torrance Adult Education and is directed by Mrs. Milton Barter.

CHILDREN ARE offered the opportunity to explore and experience materials and equipment especially designed for the pre-schooler to help their physical and emotional development. Display of these materials including clay work, paintings, books, musical instruments, climbing and other equipment will be on hand for visitors to see during the afternoon.

Children of visitors are welcomed to see the "children's world" as set up by the members.

For more information call Mrs. William Thompson, FA 1-2913 or Mrs. Harold Anson at DA 9-1479.
