. . . Ann Landers

Dear Lila: If Bill won't keep the cork in the bottle for his sweetheart, don't expect him to do it for his wife. It's always a mistake to expect marriage to straighten a man out. It usually makes him worse, not better.

Since Bill is going with you for "kicks" why not kick him in the direction of the local Rehabilitation Center for Alcoholics?

Dear Ann Landers: My daughter got into trouble with her future in-laws over something which was not her fault. Will you please settle this?

We ordered just the number of engraved invitations we thought we needed. As it turned out, we felt we had to add a few people to the list so we used up all the invitations.

The mother-in-law was very put out because she and her husband did not get an engraved invitation in the mail. Is it necessary to send the future in-laws an invitation?—N.N.M.

Dear N.N.M.: It's not NECESSARY but it's a nice thing to do. They probably would like an invitation as a memento.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Well Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright, 1960, Field Enterprises, Inc.
