Father Percy to Continue Sermon Series on Courage

In his sermon last Sunday, entitled "Others," the Rev. Hugh R. Percy of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Torrance, discussed humility, the primary Grace of a Christian.

An oft-misinterpreted word, Father Percy warned that one can be cheated both materially and spiritually if one has the wrong conception of humility.

It does not imply, as many seem to think, weakness, timidity, or self-depreciation, but a moderate estimate of self in relation to the absolute values shown us by Christ. It means a dependency on the Grace of God, from which comes strength without conceit.

The next sermon in this series on "How Do You Recognize A Christian?" is entitled "What Are You Afraid Of?" and concern courage. It will be presented at the 9:15 and 11 a.m. services Sunday.

The United Thank Offering from the Women of the Parish will be received at all services on Sunday.
